The Declaration of Independence is generally regarded as one of the most famous documents in the history of the world. On June 10, 1776, the Continental Congress appointed a committee, consisting of Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin, John Adams, Roger Sherman and Robert R. Livingston to draft a Declaration of Independence.

Jefferson wrote out a rough draft of the Declaration, which was carefully revised by the committee and presented to Congress for adoption. After some further slight revisions by that body, it was adopted on July 4, 1776, at Philadelphia.

The parchment with the original signatures was deposited with the Department of State when the government was organized in 1789.

The original Declaration of Independence is now on public exhibition in the Library of Congress at Washington, D. C. It was transferred from the Department of State by direction of the late President Warren G. Harding.

THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

MADE BY THE ORIGINAL THIRTEEN STATES IN CONGRESS AT PHILADELPHIA

UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED JULY 4, 1776

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed, by their Creator, with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established, should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people should relinquish the right of representation in the legislature, a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected, whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the State remaining, in the meantime, exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither; and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made judges dependent on his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies, without the consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing taxes on us without our consent:

For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury:

For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offenses:

For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies:

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our governments:

For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is, at this time, transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation, and tyranny, already begun, with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy, scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes, and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms: our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them, from time to time, of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, enemies in war, in peace friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do in the name, and by authority of the good people of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies, are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connexion between them and the State of Great Britain, is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that as free and independent States, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent States may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honour.

The United States Constitution is the oldest federal constitution in existence. It was so well framed that it has served as the basis for this government for a century and a half. Only once has it been seriously endangered, this being during the Civil War. Many of its principles have been adopted by other countries.

The Constitution was the outgrowth of a convention of delegates from the different states that met in Philadelphia in May, 1787, Rhode Island not being represented. George Washington presided over the convention, which lasted from May to September.

The Constitution was then submitted to the then existing states for ratification, with a provision that it should become effective when ratified by nine states. New Hampshire was ninth state to ratify, June 21, 1788, and the Constitution went into effect in 1789.

The states ratified the Constitution in the following order: Delaware, Dec. 7; Pennsylvania, Dec. 12, and New Jersey, Dec. 18, 1787; Georgia, Jan. 2; Connecticut, Jan. 9; Massachusetts, Feb. 6; Maryland, Apr. 28; South Carolina, May 23; New Hampshire, June 21; Virginia, June 26, and New York, July 26, 1788; North Carolina, Nov. 21, 1789, and Rhode Island, May 29, 1790.

CONSTITUTION

THE CONSTITUTION

Preamble.—We the people of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

ARTICLE I.

Section 1.

Legislative powers vested in Congress.—All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

Section 2.

Composition of the House of Representatives.—1. The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

Qualifications of Representatives.—2. No Person shall be a Representative who shall not have attained to the Age of twenty-five Years, and been seven Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State in which he shall be chosen.

Apportionment of Representatives and direct taxes—census.—*3. [Representatives and direct Taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective Numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole Number of free Persons, including those bound to Service for a Term of Years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three fifths of all other persons.] The actual Enumeration shall be made within three Years after the first Meeting of the Congress of the United States, and within every subsequent Term of ten Years, in such Manner as they shall by Law direct. The Number of Representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty thousand, but each State shall have at Least one Representative; and until such enumeration shall be made, the State of New Hampshire shall be entitled to chuse three, Massachusetts eight, Rhode-Island and Providence Plantations one, Connecticut five, New York six, New Jersey four, Pennsylvania eight, Delaware one, Maryland six, Virginia ten, North Carolina five, South Carolina five, and Georgia three.

Filling of vacancies in representation—4. When vacancies happen in the Representation from any State, the Executive Authority thereof shall issue Writs of Election to fill such Vacancies.

Selection of officers; power of impeachment.—5. The House of Representatives shall chuse their Speaker and other Officers; and shall have the sole Power of Impeachment.

*SECTION 3.

The Senate.—[1. The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature thereof, for six Years; and each Senator shall have one Vote.]

Classification of Senators; filling of vacancies.— 2. Immediately after they shall be assembled in Consequence of the first Election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three Classes. The Seats of the Senators of the first Class shall be vacated at the Expiration of the second Year, of the second Class at the Expiration of the fourth Year, and of the third Class at the Expiration of the sixth Year, so that one-third may be chosen every second Year; and if Vacancies happen by Resignation, or otherwise, during the Recess of the Legislature of any State, the Executive thereof may make temporary Appointments [until the next Meeting of the Legislature, which shall then fill such Vacancies.]

* The first paragraph of section three of Article I of the Constitution of the United States, and so much of paragraph two of the same section as relates to filling vacancies are amended by the seventeenth amendment to the Constitution.

Qualification of Senators.—3. No person shall be a Senator who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty Years, and been nine Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State for which he shall be chosen.

Vice President to be President of Senate.—4. The Vice President of the United States shall be President of the Senate, but shall have no Vote, unless they be equally divided.

Selection of Senate officers; President pro tempore.—5. The Senate, shall chuse their other Officers, and also a President pro tempore, in the absence of the Vice-President, or when he shall exercise the Office of President of the United States.

Senate to try impeachments.—6. The Senate shall have the sole Power to try all Impeachments. When sitting for that Purpose, they shall be on Oath or Affirmation. When the President of the United States is tried, the Chief Justice shall preside: And no Person shall be convicted without the Concurrence of two thirds of the Members present.

Judgment in case of impeachment.—7. Judgment in Cases of Impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from Office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any Office of honor, Trust, or Profit under the United States: but the Party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to Indictment, Trial, Judgment and Punishment, according to Law.

SECTION 4.

Control of congressional elections.—1. The Times, Places and Manner of holding Elections for Senators and Representatives, shall be prescribed in each State by the Legislature thereof; but the Congress may at any time by Law make or alter such Regulations, except as to the Places of chusing Senators.

Time for assembling of Congress.—2. The Congress shall assemble at least once in every Year, and such Meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by Law appoint a different Day.

---

* Amended by Article XX, section 2, of the amendments to the Constitution.

SECTION 5.

Each House to be the judge of the election and qualifications of its members; regulations as to quorum.—1. Each House shall be the Judge of the Elections, Returns and Qualifications of its own Members, and a Majority of each shall constitute a Quorum to do Business; but a smaller Number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the Attendance of absent Members, in such Manner, and under such Penalties as each House may provide.

Each House to determine its own rules.—2. Each House may determine the Rules of its Proceedings, punish its Members for disorderly Behavior, and, with the Concurrence of two thirds, expel a Member.

Journals and yeas and nays.—3. Each House shall keep a Journal of its Proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such Parts as may in their judgment require Secrecy; and the Yeas and Nays of the Members of either House on any question shall, at the Desire of one fifth of those Present, be entered on the Journal.

Adjournment.—4. Neither House, during the Session of Congress shall, without the Consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other Place than that in which the two Houses shall be sitting.

SECTION 6.

Compensation and privileges of Members of Congress.—1. The Senators and Representatives shall receive a Compensation for their Services, to be ascertained by Law, and paid out of the Treasury of the United States. They shall in all Cases, except Treason, Felony and Breach of the Peace, be privileged from Arrest during their Attendance at the Session of their respective Houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any Speech or Debate in either House, they shall not be questioned in any other Place.

Incompatible offices: exclusions.—2. No Senator or Representative shall, during the Time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil Office under the Authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the Emoluments whereof shall have been encreased during such time; and no Person holding any Office under the United States, shall be a Member of either House during his Continuance in Office.

SECTION 7.

Revenue bills to originate in House.—1. All Bills for raising Revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives; but the Senate may propose or concur with Amendments as on other Bills.

Manner of passing bills; veto power of President.—2. Every Bill which shall have passed the House of Representatives and the Senate, shall before it becomes a Law, be presented to the President of the United States; If he approve he shall sign it, but if not he shall return it, with his Objections to that House in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the Objections at large on their Journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If after such Reconsideration two thirds of that House shall agree to pass the Bill, it shall be sent, together with the Objections, to the other House, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two thirds of that House, it shall become a Law. But in all such Cases the Votes of both Houses shall be determined by Yeas and Nays, and the Names of the Persons voting for and against the Bill shall be entered on the Journal of each House respectively. If any Bill shall not be returned by the President within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the Same shall be a Law, in like Manner as if he had signed it, unless the Congress by their Adjournment prevent its Return, in which Case it shall not be a Law.

Concurrent orders or resolutions, to be passed by President.—3. Every Order, Resolution, or Vote to which the Concurrence of the Senate and House of Representatives may be necessary (except on a question of adjournment) shall be presented to the President of the United States; and before the Same shall take Effect, shall be approved by him, or being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by two thirds of the Senate and House of Representatives, according to the Rules and Limitations prescribed in the Case of a Bill.

SECTION 8.

General powers of Congress.

The Congress shall have Power.—1. To lay and collect Taxes, Duties, Imposts and Excises, to pay the Debts and provide for the common Defence and general Welfare of the United States; but all Duties, Imposts and Excises shall be uniform throughout the United States.

Borrowing of money.—2. To borrow money on the credit of the United States.

Regulation of commerce.—3. To regulate Commerce with foreign Nations, and among the several States, and with the Indian tribes.

Naturalization and bankruptcy.—4. To establish an uniform Rule of Naturalization, and uniform Laws on the subject of Bankruptcies throughout the United States.

Money, weights and measures.—5. To coin Money, regulate the Value thereof, and of foreign Coin, and fix the Standard of Weights and Measures.

Counterfeiting.—6. To provide for the Punishment of counterfeiting the Securities and current Coin of the United States.

Post offices.—7. To establish Post Offices and post roads.

Patents and copyrights.—8. To promote the Progress of Science and useful Arts, by securing for limited Times to Authors and Inventors the exclusive Right to their respective Writings and Discoveries.

Inferior courts.—9. To constitute Tribunals inferior to the supreme Court.

Piracies and felonies.—10. To define and punish Piracies and Felonies committeed on the high Seas, and Offenses against the Law of Nations.

---

* By Article XVI of the amendments to the Constitution, Congress is given the power to lay and collect taxes on incomes.

War; marque and reprisal.—11. To declare war, grant Letters of Marque and Reprisal, and make Rules concerning Captures on Land and Water.

Armies.—12. To raise and support Armies, but no Appropriation of Money to that Use shall be for a longer Term than two Years.

Navy.—13. To provide and maintain a Navy.

Land and naval forces.—14. To make Rules for the Government and Regulation of the land and naval Forces.

Calling out militia.—15. To provide for calling forth the Militia to execute the Laws of the Union, suppress Insurrections and repel Invasions.

Organizing, arming and disciplining militia.—16. To provide for organizing, arming, and disciplining the Militia, and for governing such Part of them as may be employed in the Service of the United States, reserving to the States, respectively, the Appointment of the Officers, and the Authority of training the Militia according to the discipline prescribed by Congress.

Exclusive legislation over District of Columbia.—17. To exercise exclusive Legislation in all Cases whatsoever, over such District (not exceeding ten Miles square) as may, by Cession of particular States, and the acceptance of Congress, become the Seat of the Government of the United States, and to exercise like Authority over all Places purchased by the Consent of the Legislature of the State in which the Same shall be, for the Erection of Forts, Magazines, Arsenals, dock-Yards, and other needful Buildings;—and

To enact laws necessary to enforce Constitution.—18. To make all Laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into Execution the foregoing Powers, and all other Powers vested by this Constitution in the Government of the Unites States, or in any Department or Officer thereof.

SECTION 9.

Migration or importation of certain persons not to be prohibited before 1808.—1. The Migration or Importation of such Persons as any of the States now existing, shall think proper to admit shall not be prohibited by the Congress prior to the Year one thousand eight hundred and eight, but a tax or duty may be imposed on such Importation, not exceed ten dollars for each Person.

Writ of habeas corpus not to be suspended; exception.—2. The privilege of the Writ of Habeas Corpus shall not be suspended, unless when in Cases of Rebellion or Invasion the public Safety may require it.

Bills of attainder and ex post facto laws prohibited.—3. No Bill of Attainder or ex post facto Law shall be passed.

Capitation and other direct taxes.—*4. No capitation, or other direct tax shall be laid, unless in Proportion to the Census or Enumeration herein before directed to be taken.

Exports not to be taxed.—5. No Tax or Duty shall be laid on Articles exported from any State.

No preference to be given to ports of any State; interstate shipping.—6. No Preference shall be given by any Regulation of Commerce or Revenue to the Ports of one State over those of another; nor shall Vessels bound to, or from, one State, be obliged to enter, clear, or pay Duties in another.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

The following amendments from articles I to X inclusive, were proposed at the first session of the first Congress of the United States, which was begun and held at the city of New York on the 4th day of March, 1789, and were adopted by the requisite number of states, as follows: New Jersey, Nov. 20, 1789; Maryland, Dec. 19, 1789; North Carolina, Dec. 22, 1789; South Carolina, Jan. 19, 1790; New Hampshire, Jan. 25, 1790; Delaware, Jan. 28, 1790; Pennsylvania, March 10, 1790; New York, March 27, 1790; Rhode Island, June 15, 1790; Vermont, Nov. 3, 1791, and Virginia, Dec. 15, 1791.

The following preamble and resolution preceded the original proposition of the amendments, and as they have been supposed by a high equity judge to have an important bearing on the construction of those amendments, they are here inserted. They will be found in the journals of the first session of the first congress.

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES

Begun and held at the city of New York, on Wednesday, the 4th day of March, 1789.

The conventions of a number of the states having, at the time of their adopting the Constitution, expressed a desire, in order to prevent misconstruction or abuse of its powers, that further declaratory and restrictive clauses should be added, and as extending the ground of public confidence in the government will best insure the beneficent ends of its institution:

Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, two-thirds of both houses concurring, that the following articles be proposed to the legislature of the several states, as amendments to the constitution of the United States; all or any of which articles, when ratified by three-fourths of the said legislatures, to be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of the said constitution, namely:

ARTICLE I.

Freedom of religion, of speech, of the press, and right of petition.—Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

ARTICLE II.

Right of people to bear arms not to be infringed.—A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed.

ARTICLE III.

Quartering of troops.—No Soldier shall, in time of peace be quartered in any house, without the consent of the Owner, nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE IV.

Persons and houses to be secure from unreasonable searches and seizures.—The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

ARTICLE V.

Trials for crimes; just compensation for private property taken for public use.—No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a Grand Jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the Militia, when in actual service in time of War or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offence to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

ARTICLE VI.

Civil rights in trials for crimes enumerated.—In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the Assistance of Counsel for his defence.

ARTICLE VII.

Civil rights in civil suits.—In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried in a jury, shall be otherwise re-examined in any Court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law.

ARTICLE VIII.

Excessive bail, fines and punishments prohibited.—Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

ARTICLE IX.

Reserved rights of people.—The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

ARTICLE X.

Powers not delegated, reserved to States and people respectively.—The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.

[The eleventh amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the third Congress on March 5, 1794, and was declared in force January 8, 1798.]

ARTICLE XI.

Judicial power of United States not to extend to suits against a State.—The Judicial power of the United States shall not be construed to extend to any suit in law or equity, commenced or prosecuted against one of the United States by Citizens of another State, or by Citizens or Subjects of any Foreign State.

[The twelfth amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the eighth Congress on December 12, 1803, and was declared in force September 25, 1804.]

ARTICLE XII.

*__Present mode of electing President and Vice-President by electors.__—The Electors shall meet in their respective states and vote by ballot for President and Vice-President, one of whom, at least, shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves; they shall name in their ballots the person voted for as President, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as Vice-President, and they shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as President, and of all persons voted for as Vice-President, and of the number of votes for each, which lists they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the President of the Senate;—The President of the Senate shall, in the presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the certificates and the votes shall then be counted;—The person having the greatest number of votes for President, shall be the President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if no person have such majority, then from the persons having the highest numbers not exceeding three on the list of those voted for as President, the House of Representatives shall choose immediately, by ballot, the President. But in choosing the President, the votes shall be taken by states, the representation from each State having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice. And if the House of Representatives shall not choose a President whenever the right of choice shall devolve upon them, before the fourth day of March next following, then the Vice-President shall act as President, as in the case of the death or other constitutional disability of the President. The person having the greatest number of votes as Vice-President, shall be the Vice-President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed, and if no person have a majority, then from the two highest numbers on the list, the Senate shall choose the Vice-President; a quorum for the purpose shall consist of two-thirds of the whole number of Senators, and a majority of the whole number shall be necessary to a choice. But no person constitutionally ineligible to the office of President shall be eligible to that of Vice-President of the United States.

[The thirteenth amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the thirty-eighth Congress on February 1, 1865, and was declared in force December 18, 1865.]

ARTICLE XIII.

Section 1.

Slavery prohibited.—Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

Section 2.

Congress given power to enforce this article.—Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

[The fourteenth amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the thirty-ninth Congress on June 16, 1866, and was declared in force July 28, 1868.]

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1.

Citizenship defined; privileges of citizens.—All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Section 2.

Apportionment of Representatives.—Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, Representatives in Congress, the Executive and Judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion, or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Section 3.

Disqualification for office; removal of disability.—No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath, as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Section 4.

Public debt not to be questioned; payment of debts and claims incurred in aid of rebellion forbidden.—The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

Section 5.

Congress given power to enforce this article.—The Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

[The fifteenth amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the fortieth Congress on February 27, 1869, and was declared in force March 30, 1870.]

ARTICLE XV.

SECTION 1.

Right of certain citizens to vote established.—The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State, on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

SECTION 2.

Congress given power to enforce this article.—The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

[The sixteenth amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the sixty-first Congress on July 12, 1909, and was declared in force February 25, 1913.]

ARTICLE XVI.

Taxes on income; Congress given power to lay and collect.—The Congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived, without apportionment among the several States, and without regard to any census or enumeration.

[The seventeenth amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the sixty-second Congress on May 16, 1912, and was declared in force May 31, 1913.]

ARTICLE XVII.

Election of United States Senators; filling of vacancies; qualifications of electors.—The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, elected by the people thereof, for six years; and each Senator shall have one vote. The electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the State legislatures.

2. When vacancies happen in the representation of any State in the Senate, the executive authority of such State shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies; Provided, that the legislature of any State may empower the executive thereof to make temporary appointment until the people fill the vacancies by election as the legislature may direct.

3. This amendment shall not be so construed as to affect the election or term of any Senator chosen before it becomes valid as part of the Constitution.

[The eighteenth amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the sixty-fifth Congress, and was declared on January 29, 1919, as going into full force and effect on January 16, 1920.]

*ARTICLE XVIII.

Manufacture, sale or transportation of intoxicating liquors, for beverage purposes, prohibited.—1. After one year from the ratification of this article the manufacture, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof for beverage purposes is hereby prohibited.

Congress and the several States given concurrent power to pass appropriate legislation to enforce this article.—2. The Congress and the several States shall have concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Provisions of article to become operative, when adopted by three-fourths of the States.—3. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of the several States, as provided in the Constitution within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the States by the Congress.

[The nineteenth amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the sixty-sixth Congress on May 19, 1919, and declared in force August 26, 1920.]

ARTICLE XIX.

The right of citizens to vote shall not be denied because of sex.—The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex.

Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

* Repealed by Article XXI, effective December 5, 1933.

[The twentieth amendment, which follows, was proposed to the legislatures of the states by the seventy-second Congress, Senate Joint Res. 14, passed by the House of Representatives on March 1, 1932; the Senate March 2, 1932; signed by the Speaker of the House March 2, 1932, by the Vice-President of the U. S. and the President of the Senate March 3, 1932. Ratification by the thirty-sixth state occurred January 23, 1933. Sections 1 and 2 of the amendment became effective October 15, 1933.]

ARTICLE XX.

SECTION 1.

Terms of President, Vice-President, Senators and Representatives.—The terms of the President and Vice-President shall end at noon on the 20th day of January, and the terms of Senators and Representatives at noon on the 3d day of January, of the years in which such terms would have ended if this article had not been ratified; and the terms of their successors shall then begin.

SECTION 2.

Time of assembling Congress.—The Congress shall assemble at last once in every year, and such meeting shall begin at noon on the 3d day of January, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

SECTION 3.

Filling vacancy in office of President.—If, at the time fixed for the beginning of the term of the President, the President elect shall have died, the Vice-President elect shall become President. If a President shall not have been chosen before the time fixed for the beginning of his term, or if the President elect shall have failed to qualify, then the Vice-President elect shall act as President until a President shall have qualified; and the Congress may by law provide for the case wherein neither a President elect nor a Vice-President elect shall have qualified, declaring who shall then act as President, or the manner in which one who is to act shall be selected, and such person shall act accordingly until a President or Vice-President shall have qualified.

SECTION 4.

Power of Congress in Presidential succession.—The Congress may by law provide for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the House of Representatives may choose a President

whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them, and for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the Senate may choose a Vice-President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them.

SECTION 5.

Time of taking effect.—Sections 1 and 2 shall take effect on the 15th day of October following the ratification of this article.

SECTION 6.

Ratification.—This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission.

[The twenty-first amendment, which follows, was proposed by the seventy-second Congress, second session beginning December 5, 1932. Senate Joint Resolution 211, passed February 20, 1933, provided for ratification by conventions in three-fourths of the states. The amendment became effective with ratification by Utah, the thirty-sixth state, on December 5, 1933.]

STATUS OF ACTION ON PROPOSED FEDERAL CHILD LABOR AMENDMENT.

Department of State, Washington, May 1, 1939.

By Joint Resolution of Congress, June 2, 1924, the following amendment to the Constitution of the United States was proposed:

"Section 1. The Congress shall have power to limit, regulate, and prohibit the labor of persons under eighteen years of age.

"Section 2. The power of the several States is unimpaired by this article except that the operation of State laws shall be suspended to the extent necessary to give effect to legislation enacted by the Congress."

THE UNITED STATES

The United States is composed of forty-eight states, one district, and eight non-contiguous territories and possessions, including The Philippines, a commonwealth, whose independence will be recognized after a ten-year transitional commonwealth government, which was inaugurated November 15, 1935 (act of Congress signed by President, March 24, 1934).

The republic originated in the rebellion of the British Colonies of North America, Canada excepted, in 1776, and in the Declaration of Independence, the thirteen colonies in revolt styled themselves "The United States of America."

The Canadian boundary line is 3,900 miles in length, the Mexican boundary line being 1,975 miles in length. The total ocean, lake and river boundary is 10,758 miles. The greatest length from the Atlantic to the Pacific is 3,100 miles, while the greatest distance north and south is 1,780 miles.

According to the 1940 Federal Census, the first basic re-measurement of the land and water area of the United States since 1880 showed a total area of 3,022,387 square miles, consisting of 2,977,128 square miles land area, and 45,259 square miles inland water area.

The 1940 Federal census gave the United States, and all territorial possessions, a population of 150,621,231, Continental United States having 131,669,275; territorial possessions, excluding Philippine Islands, 2,595,956; Philippine Islands 16,356,000.

The Capitol of the United States is at Washington, D. C. The corner stone of the original building was laid on September 18, 1793 by President George Washington. The original building was finally completed in 1827, its cost, including the grading of grounds, alterations and repairs up to that year, having been $2,433,844.13.

THE UNITED STATES

Creation, date of admission, area and population

There is no specific form of procedure provided in the United States Constitution for the admission of new states to the Union. Different methods of admission have marked the addition of the thirty-five states to the original thirteen. For admission, however, certain conditions must exist. The community must be organized with a population in numbers and character capable of upholding self government and Congress is the final judge as to these requirements. The decisions of Congress, however, have frequently been influenced by party reasons, and in 1872 it was enacted that no state should be admitted thereafter unless it had the necessary population entitling it to at least one representative, according to a ratio of representation fixed. To gain admission, a petition is presented to Congress, which grants an enabling act if the request is favorably received. When all the terms of the enabling act have been complied with, Congress, by resolution, or the President, by proclamation, declares the new state admitted to the Union.

* The side notes indicate the decisions of the supreme court.

All amendments are shown by notes at the bottom of the page indicating the year in which they took effect. The amendments of 1792, "so far as relates to the choice of the members of the legislature and the executive officers of the state, county treasurer and recorder of deeds," took effect on February 1, 1793, and all others on the first Wednesday of June, 1793.

The amendments of 1850 took effect September 16, 1852; those of 1876, August 1, 1877, October 1, 1878, and the first Wednesday of June, 1879, as indicated in the foot notes; those of 1889, April 2, 1889; those of 1902 on March 26, 1903; and those of 1912 on November 20, 1912.

The numbering of the sections of Part II first appeared in the Revised Statutes of 1842. In 1889, when the tenth section of Part II was stricken out, all subsequent sections were renumbered, with the result of making much confusion in citations. In this copy the original numbers have been restored.

PART FIRST

BILL OF RIGHTS.

ARTICLE 1st. All men are born equally free and independent: Therefore, all government, of right, originates from the people, is founded in consent, and instituted for the general good.

Equality of men; origin and object of government.
liii, 212. lxv, 113.

[ART.] *2d. All men have certain natural, essential, and inherent rights—among which are, the enjoying and defending life and liberty; acquiring, possessing, and protecting, property; and, in a word, of seeking and obtaining happiness.

Natural rights.
liv, 117, 590.
lxv, 103. lxvii, 59.
lxxii, 95.
lxxiii, 33, 34.
lxxv, 31.
lxxvii, 581.

[ART.] 3d. When men enter into a state of society, they surrender up some of their natural rights to that society, in order to ensure the protection of others; and, without such an equivalent, the surrender is void.

Society, its organization and purposes.
liii, 9.
lxxi, 555.

[ART.] 4th. Among the natural rights, some are, in their very nature unalienable, because no equivalent can be given or received for them. Of this kind are the Rights of Conscience.

Rights of conscience unalienable.
liii, 9. lix, 225.

[ART.] 5th. Every individual has a natural and unalienable right to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience, and reason; and no subject shall be hurt, molested, or restrained, in his person, liberty, or estate, for worshiping God in the manner and season most agreeable to the dictates of his own conscience; or for his religious profession, sentiments, or persuasion: provided he doth not disturb the public peace or disturb others in their religious worship.

Religious freedom recognized.
liii, 9. lviii, 240.
lix, 225. lxiv, 48.
lxix, 381.
lxxvi, 420.

[ART.] 6th. As morality and piety, rightly grounded on evangelical principles, will give the best and greatest security to government, and will lay, in the hearts of men, the strongest obligations to due subjection; and as the knowledge of these is most likely to be propagated through a society, by the institution of the public worship of the Deity, and of public instruction in Public worship of the Deity to be encouraged.

liii, 9. lxvi, 230.
lxxv, 424, 562.
lxxvi, 408.

---

* First inserted in this and following articles of Bill of Rights in General Statutes, 1867.

morality and religion; therefore, to promote these important purposes, the people of this state have a right to empower, and do hereby fully empower, the legislature, to authorize, from time to time, the several towns, parishes, bodies corporate, or religious societies, within this state, to make adequate provision, at their own expense, for the support and maintenance of public Protestant teachers of piety, religion, and morality:

Right of electing religious teachers. Sm., 1. liii, 9, 138. lvi, 508. lviii, 170. lxvi, 230.

Provided notwithstanding, that the several towns, parishes, bodies corporate, or religious societies, shall, at all times, have the exclusive right of electing their own public teachers, and of contracting with them for their support and maintenance. And no person, of any one particular religious sect or denomination, shall ever be compelled to pay towards the support of the teacher or teachers of another persuasion, sect, or denomination.

Free toleration. liii, 9.

And every denomination of Christians, demeaning themselves quietly, and as good subjects of the state, shall be equally under the protection of the law: And no subordination of any one sect or denomination to another, shall ever be established by law.

Existing contracts not affected.

And nothing herein shall be understood to affect any former contracts made for the support of the ministry; but all such contracts shall remain, and be in the same state as if this constitution had not been made.

State sovereignty. lxvi, 369.

[ART.] 7th. The people of this state have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves as a free, sovereign, and independent state; and do, and forever hereafter shall, exercise and enjoy every power, jurisdiction, and right, pertaining thereto, which is not, or may not hereafter be, by them expressly delegated to the United States of America in congress assembled.

Accountability of magistrates and officers. lxvi, 369. lxvii, 49.

[ART.] 8th. All power residing originally in, and being derived from, the people, all the magistrates and officers of government are their substitutes and agents, and at all times accountable to them.

No hereditary office or place.

[ART.] 9th. No office or place, whatsoever, in government, shall be hereditary—the abilities and integrity requisite in all, not being transmissible to posterity or relations.

Right of revolution. lii, 592. lxv, 113.

[ART.] 10th. Government being instituted for the common benefit, protection, and security, of the whole community, and not for the private interest or emolument of any one man, family, or class of men; therefore, whenever the ends of government are perverted, and public liberty manifestly endangered, and all other means of redress are ineffectual, the people may, and of right ought, to reform the old, or establish a new government. The doctrine of nonresistance against arbitrary power, and oppression, is absurd, slavish, and destructive of the good and happiness of mankind.

Elections and elective franchise, lx, 385.

]ART.] 11th. All elections ought to be free, and every inhabitant of the state, having the proper qualifications, has equal right to elect, and be elected, into office; [but no person shall have the right to vote or be eligible to office under the constitution of this state who shall not be able to read the constitution in the English language and to write; provided, however, that this provision shall not apply to any person prevented by a physical disability from complying with its requisitions, nor to any person who now has the right to vote, nor to any person who shall be sixty years of age or upwards on the first day of January, A. D. 1904;]* [and provided further that no person shall have the right to vote, or be eligible to office under the constitution of this state who shall have been convicted of treason, bribery, or any wilful violation of the election laws of this state, or of the United States; but the supreme court may, on notice to the attorney-general restore the privileges of an elector to any person who may have forfeited them by conviction of such offences.]† [The general court shall have power to provide by law for voting by qualified voters who at the time of biennial or state elections or of city elections are absent from the city or town of which they are inhabitants, or who by reason of physical disability are unable to vote in person, in the choice of any officer or officers to be elected or upon any questions submitted at such election.]*

Protection and taxation reciprocal. Private property for public use, etc.
i, 120, 130. ii, 22. iii, 534. iv, 568. vii, 35. viii, 398, x, 369, xi, 19. xvii, 47, 64. xxv, 541. xxvii, 183. xxxv, 141, xxxvi, 404. xlvii, 444. l, 591. li, 504. liv, 590. lvi, 399, 514. lviii, 110,549. lix, 191, 260, 480. lx, 219, 346, 522. lxi, 631. lxii, 66. lxv, 113. lxix, 33, 445. lxx, 344. lxxii, 95, 311. 532. lxxiv, 90, 538, 593. lxxv, 262. lxxvi, 591, 611. lxxvii, 65. lxxviii, 388.

[Art.] 12th. Every member of the community has a right to be protected by it, in the enjoyment of his life, liberty, and property; he is therefore bound to contribute his share in the expense of such protection, and to yield his personal service when necessary, or an equivalent. But no part of a man's property shall be taken from him, or applied to public uses, without his own consent, or that of the representative body of the people. Nor are the inhabitants of this state controllable by any other laws than those to which they, or their representative body, have given their consent.

Conscientiously scrupulous, not compellable to bear arms.

[Art.] 13th. No person, who is conscientiously scrupulous about the lawfulness of bearing arms, shall be compelled thereto, provided he will pay an equivalent.

Legal remedies to be free, complete, and prompt.
xxv, 539, 540. lxi, 610. lxv, 113. lxxvii, 308.

[Art.] 14th. Every subject of this state is entitled to a certain remedy, by having recourse to the laws, for all injuries he may receive in his person, property, or character; to obtain right and justice freely, without being obliged to purchase it; completely, and without any denial; promptly, and without delay; conformably to the laws.

Accused entitled to full and substantial statement of charge; not obliged to furnish evidence; may produce proofs and be fully heard, etc. Sm., 367.
i, 56, 130, 140. xlviii, 57, 398,. lii, 459. lv, 179. lviii, 314. lxiii, 406. lxiv, 442, 491. lxvi, 577, 633. lxvii, 279. lxviii, 496. lxix, 512. lxxiii, 227, 548. lxxv, 516. lxxvi, 309, 310. lxxviii, 222. lxxx, 535.

[Art.] 15th. No subject shall be held to answer for any crime, or offense, until the same is fully and plainly, substantially and formally, described to him; or be compelled to accuse or furnish evidence against himself. And every subject shall have a right to produce all proofs that may be favorable to himself; to meet the witnesses against him face to face, and to be fully heard in his defense, by himself, and counsel. And no subject shall be arrested, imprisoned, despoiled, or deprived of his property, immunities, or privileges, put out of the protection of the law, exiled or deprived of his life, liberty, or estate, but by the judgment of his peers, or the law of the land.

STATE
SENATE

No person to be again tried after an acquittal; trial by jury in capital cases.
lxvii, 278, 279, 280.
lxxx, 395.

[ART.] 16th. No subject shall be liable to be tried, after an acquittal, for the same crime or offense. Nor shall the legislature make any law that shall subject any person to a capital punishment, (excepting for the government of the army and navy, and the militia in actual service) without trial by jury.

Criminal trials in county, except in general insurrection.
xx, 250. lvi, 175.
lxi, 423, 426.
lxvi, 504.
lxxvii, 288.

[ART.] 17th. In criminal prosecutions, the trial of facts, in the vicinity where they happened, is so essential to the security of the life, liberty, and estate, of the citizen, that no crime or offense ought to be tried in any other county than that in which it is committed;—except in cases of general insurrection in any particular county, when it shall appear to the judges of the superior court, that an impartial trial cannot be had in the county where the offense may be committed, and upon their report, the [legislature][*] shall think proper to direct the trial in the nearest county in which an impartial trial can be obtained.

Penalties to be proportioned to offenses.
lxxx, 6.
True design of punishment.

[ART.] 18th. All penalties ought to be proportioned to the nature of the offense. No wise legislature will affix the same punishment to the crimes of theft, forgery, and the like, which they do to those of murder and treason. Where the same undistinguishing severity is exerted against all offenses, the people are led to forget the real distinction in the crimes themselves, and to commit the most flagrant with as little compunction as they do[†] the lightest [offenses] :[‡] For the same reason a multitude of sanguinary laws is both impolitic and unjust. The true design of all punishments being to reform, not to exterminate mankind.

Searches and seizures regulated.
i, 140. xxv, 541.
xxxvi, 64.
xlvii, 549.
lxvi, 177.
lxviii, 48.
lxxi, 102.
lxxiii, 548.

[ART.] 19th. [Every subject hath a right to be secure from all unreasonable searches and seizures of his person, his houses, his papers, and all his possessions. Therefore, all warrants to search suspected places, or arrest a person for examination or trial in prosecutions for criminal matters, are contrary to this right, if the cause or foundation of them be not previously supported by oath or affirmation; and if the order, in a warrant to a civil officer, to make search in suspected places, or to arrest one or more suspected persons or to seize their property, be not accompanied with a special designation of the persons or objects of search, arrest, or seizure; and no warrant ought to be issued; but in cases, and with the formalities, prescribed by law.]*

Trial by jury in civil causes. ii, 422. ix, 336. xi, 19. xviii, 389, 415. xix, 362. xxv, 539. xxxv, 134, xli, 550. xlviii, 57. li, 455. lv, 179. lvi, 512. lvii, 55, 110. 146, 334. lviii, 60, 182, 425. lix, 350. 561. lxii, 231. lxv, 201. lxviii, 493, 496. lxix, 522. lxxi, 326. lxxii, 600. lxxv, 537. lxxvii, 308.

[ART.] 20th. In all controversies concerning property—and in all suits between two or more persons, except in cases in which it has been heretofore otherwise used and practiced, [and except in cases in which the value in controversy does not exceed one hundred dollars, and title of real estate is not concerned]† the parties have a right to a trial by jury and this method of procedure shall be held sacred, unless, in cases arising on the high seas and such as relates to mariners' wages the legislature shall think it necessary hereafter to alter it.

Only qualified persons to serve as jurors, and to be fully compensated. lxxx, 320.

[ART.] 21st. In order to reap the fullest advantage of the inestimable privilege of the trial by jury, great care ought to be taken, that none but qualified persons should be appointed to serve; and such ought to [be]‡ fully compensated for their travel, time, and attendance.

Liberty of the press.

[ART.] 22d. The liberty of the press is essential to the security of freedom in a state: It ought, therefore, to be inviolably preserved.

Retrospective laws prohibited. Sm., 420. i, 199. iii, 481, 534. iv, 16, 287. x, 386. xviii, 547. xxiii, 382. xxiv, 351. xxvii, 294. xxxii, 413. xxxix, 304, 377, 505. li, 376, 383, 559. liv, 167. lvi, 466. lxiv, 295, 409. lxv, 37, 126. lxviii, 60. lxx, 24. lxxix, 438. lxxx, 294, 464.

[ART.] 23d. Retrospective laws are highly injurious, oppressive, and unjust. No such laws, therefore, should be made, either for the decision of civil causes, or the punishment of offenses.

Mitilia.

[ART.] 24th. A well regulated militia is the proper, natural, and sure defense, of a state.

Standing armies.

[ART.] 25th. Standing armies are dangerous to liberty, and ought not to be raised. or kept up, without the consent of the legislature.

‡ Not in engrossed copy of 1793.

[ART.] 26th. In all cases, and at all times, the military ought to be under strict subordination to, and governed by, the civil power.

Military, subject to civil power.

[ART.] 27th. No soldier in time of peace, shall be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner; and in time of war, such quarters ought not to be made but by the civil magistrate, in a manner ordained by the legislature.

Quartering of soldiers.

[ART.] 28th. No subsidy, charge, tax, impost, or duty, shall be established, fixed, laid, or levied, under any pretext whatsoever, without the consent of the people, or their representatives in the legislature, or authority derived from that body.

Taxes to be levied only by the people or legislature. xiv. 98. lxxiv, 528, 535, 539. lxxvi, 611.

[ART.] 29th. The power of suspending the laws, or the execution of them, ought never to be exercised but by the legislature, or by authority derived therefrom, to be exercised in such particular cases only as the legislature shall expressly provide for.

Suspension of laws by the legislature only.

[ART.] 30th. The freedom of deliberation, speech, and debate, in either house of the legislature, is so essential to the rights of the people, that it cannot be the foundation of any action, complaint, or prosecution, in any other court or place whatsoever.

Freedom of speech.

[ART.] 31st. [The legislature shall assemble for the redress of public grievances and for making such laws as the public good may require.]*

Meetings of legislature, for what purposes.

[ART.] 32d. The people have a right, in an orderly and peaceable manner, to assemble and consult upon the common good, give instructions to their representatives, and to request of the legislative body, by way of petition or remonstrance, redress of the wrongs done them, and of the grievances they suffer.

Rights of assembly, instruction, and petition. lxxi, 471.

[ART.] 33d. No magistrate, or court of law, shall demand excessive bail or sureties, impose excessive fines, or inflict cruel or unusual punishments.

Excessive bail, fines, and punishments prohibited. i, 374. xxv, 541.

[ART.] 34th. No person can, in any case, be subjected to law martial, or to any pains or penalties by virtue of that law, except those employed in the army

[ART.] 35th. [It is essential to the preservation of the rights of every individual, his life, liberty, property, and character, that there be an impartial interpretation of the laws, and administration of justice. It is the right of every citizen to be tried by judges as impartial as the lot of humanity will admit. It is therefore not only the best policy, but for the security of the rights of the people, that the judges of the supreme judicial court should hold their offices so long as they behave well; subject, however, to such limitations, on account of age, as may be provided by the constitution of the state; and that they should have honorable salaries, ascertained and established by standing laws.]*

Pensions. lxxviii, 617.

[ART.] 36th. Economy being a most essential virtue in all states, especially in a young one; no pension shall be granted, but in consideration of actual services; and such pensions ought to be granted with great caution, by the legislature, and never for more than one year at a time.

The legislative, executive and judicial departments to be kept separate. i, 199. lii, 387. lviii, 451. lxiii, 574. lxxii, 541. lxxiv, 607.

[ART.] 37th. In the government of this state, the three essential powers thereof, to wit, the legislative, executive, and judicial, ought to be kept as separate from, and independent of, each other, as the nature of a free government will admit, or as is consistent with that chain of connection that binds the whole fabric of the constitution in one indissoluble bond of union and amity.

Social virtues inculcated. lviii, 624. lxvii, 49.

[ART.] 38th. A frequent recurrence to the fundamental principles of the constitution, and a constant adherence to justice, moderation, temperance, industry, frugality, and all the social virtues, are indispensably necessary to preserve the blessings of liberty and good government; the people ought, therefore, to have a particular regard to all those principles in the choice of their officers and representatives, and they have a right to require of their law-givers and magistrates, an exact and constant observance of them, in the formation and execution of the laws necessary for the good administration of government.

and the secretary shall lay the same before the senate and house of representatives, on the first Wednesday of [January]* to be by them examined, and in case of an election by a [plurality]† of votes through the state, the choice shall be by them declared and published. And the qualifications of electors of the governor shall be the same as those for senators; and if no person shall have a [plurality]† of votes, the senate and house of representatives shall, by joint ballot elect one of the two persons, having the highest number of votes, who shall be declared governor. And no person shall be eligible to this office, unless, at the time of his election, he shall have been an inhabitant of this state for seven years next preceding, and unless he shall be of the age of thirty years.‡

Qualifications for governor.

In cases of disagreement governor to adjourn or prorogue legislature. lxxvi, 608.

[ART. 43.] In cases of disagreement between the two houses, with regard to the time or place of adjournment or prorogation, the governor, with advice of council, shall have a right to adjourn or prorogue the general court, not exceeding ninety days at any one time, as he may determine the public good may require, and he shall dissolve the same seven days before the said first Wednesday of [January].* And, in case of any infectious distemper prevailing in the place where the said court at any time is to convene, or any other cause, whereby dangers may arise to the health or lives of the members from their attendance, the governor may direct the session to be holden at some other the most convenient place within the state.

If infectious distemper or other cause exists, may convene them elsewhere.

Veto of governor to bills, provisions as to. xlv, 607. lxxvi, 605, 606.

[ART. 44.] Every bill which shall have passed both houses of the general court, shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the governor, if he approve, he shall sign it, but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to that house in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the objections at large on their journal, and proceed to reconsider it; if after such reconsideration, two-thirds of that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with such objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and, if approved by two-thirds of that house, it shall become a law. But in all such cases the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons, voting for or against the bill, shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the governor within five days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law in like manner as if he had signed it unless the legislature, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.

[ART. 95.] [No person holding the office of judge of any court, (except special judges) secretary, treasurer of the state, attorney-general, commissary-general, military officers receiving pay from the continent, or this state (excepting officers of the militia, occasionally called forth on an emergency), register of deeds, sheriff, or officers of the customs, including naval officers, collectors of excise, and state and continental taxes, hereafter appointed, and not having settled their accounts with the respective officers with whom it is their duty to settle such accounts, members of congress, or any person holding any office under the United States, shall at the same time hold the office of governor, or have a seat in the senate, or house of representatives, or council; but his being chosen and appointed to, and accepting the same, shall operate as a resignation of their seat in the chair, senate, or house of representatives, or council; and the place so vacated shall be filled up. No member of the council shall have a seat in the senate or house of representatives.]†

Bribery and corruption disqualify for office.

[ART. 96.] No person shall ever be admitted to hold a seat in the legislature or any office of trust or importance under this government, who, in the due course of law, has been convicted of bribery or corruption, in obtaining an election or appointment.

HISTORY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

GEOGRAPHICAL LOCATION

New Hampshire is situated the most northern of the thirteen original states and lies between latitude 42-40 and 45-18 north and longitude 70-37 and 72-37 west. It is about 180 miles long and 50 miles wide, although the extreme width is 93 miles.

It is bounded on the north by Quebec province in Canada, on the east by Maine and the Atlantic ocean, on the south by Massachusetts, and on the west by Vermont. The Connecticut River is the western boundary.

"MOTHER OF RIVERS"

Geographies sometimes speak of the state as the "Mother of Rivers." Five of the great streams of New England originate in its granite hills. The Connecticut River rises in the northern part, and for nearly one hundred miles of its winding course hems the shores of the state with a "broad seam of silver." The Pemigewasset River starts in the Profile Lake in the Franconia mountains and joins the Winnipesaukee at Franklin to form the Merrimack, which at one time turned more spindles than any river in the world. The Cocheco and Salmon Falls rivers join at Dover to form the Piscataqua. In addition, two of the principal rivers of Maine, the Androscoggin and the Saco, have their beginnings in northern New Hampshire.

"THE GRANITE STATE"

New Hampshire is commonly known as the Granite State, and of late years by some writers is called the Queen State—"Queen by right of her natural beauty; queen by her native hardy spirit; queen by her diversified industry; queen by reason of her motherhood of great men. She is enthroned on hills of granite, diademed with sparkling waters and sceptered with industry."

The state entertains annually over a million summer visitors, who resort in the mountain, lake and seashore scenery,—in fact it has been estimated that a million automobiles cross our borders annually! The soil is suitable for fruits, flowers and vegetables. The forests of pine, spruce and hard wood add beauty to the landscape and wealth to the land.

The White Mountains are the natural feature which has the widest fame. There are over two hundred bodies of water, which cover one hundred and fifteen thousand acres and vary from small ponds to Lake Winnipesaukee, which is twenty-two miles long and eight miles wide.

No state grows apples of finer flavor than come from the hillsides of New Hampshire. Horticultural shows have no better exhibits than are presented from towns in the southern part of this state, where the orchards have been sprayed and treated by the latest scientific methods. Strawberries, blueberries, peaches and products of the garden are grown in great quantities and shipped hundreds of miles.

Dairying is a large business and in recent years the quality of the herds has increased tenfold. There are 5,779,840 acres of land in the state, 1,960,061 acres being in farm land, with the number of farms estimated at 16,554, according to the 1940 farm census. There were over two and one-half million acres of timber land, which contained over thirty billion feet of merchantable timber, but the disastrous hurricane of 1938 has sadly depleted the standing timber in New Hampshire's granite hills.

FINE SUMMER RESORTS

It is estimated that every year more than four million dollars is permanently invested in the purchase of land and the construction of buildings in the rural districts. Nearly every town has some summer visitors. Winnipesaukee shores are lined with cottages and hotels; Sunapee has a summer population of over five thousand, who enjoy its beauties.

The state has a seaboard of about eighteen miles. Hampton and Rye beaches have been famous summer resorts since the days Whittier pitched his "tent on the beach." The salt waves of the Atlantic lap the sometimes sandy, sometimes rocky coast into one continuous pleasure ground, where surf bathing and scenic beauty enchant the visitor. In the early fall of 1915 a disastrous fire at Hampton Beach destroyed many of the hotels and places of business there, but the resort has since been rebuilt from the ruins until it is larger and more attractive than ever. The recreational area at Hampton Beach has greatly improved the appearance of that part of the coast. The state maintains a large public bath house and a parking area there. The erection of a sea wall in 1934 not only improved the property along the coast, but was a necessary measure against coast erosion.

Portsmouth, the only sea city, has an historic past and a prosperous present with its large navy yard. New Castle is a place of romance and aesthetic beauty and adventure. A large part of the Isles of Shoals in Portsmouth harbor belongs to New Hampshire, with their cottages and hotels. The state highways are as fine as any state can boast of and are kept in excellent driving condition the year round. New Hampshire is open to visitors, from the coast to the mountains, twelve months in the year.

FISH AND GAME

In 1865 New Hampshire joined the vanguard of American science by establishing a fish and game department, the first one of its kind in New England. Since that date, some eighty years ago, the efforts of this department have been devoted to the propagation and conservation of fish and game.

In modern times the cultivation of fish and the protection of wild life have demanded the application of scientific methods quite as much as any other element of our life. It is a known fact that while European countries have found vast resources in their shore fisheries, the United States is by no means able to rely on her coast fisheries, and has thus been obliged to develop her inland waters to meet the needs that otherwise could have been met only by importation from other countries. Moreover, while Europe's supply is bound to lessen in time to come, our supply will continue to increase.

Herein lies the purpose of the state department of fish and game, to see that New Hampshire stands in the van,.not in the rear, of developing her natural resources.

The state department is using many methods. In the first place, it is trying to secure the co-operation of the people, without which no department can succeed. It advocates the formation of sportsmen's clubs and the active interest of its members. Already there are seventy clubs throughout the state with the promise of new clubs forming each year. The state maintains four hatcheries; Colebrook, Warren, New Hampton and Laconia, and the federal government two, at York Pond and Nashua. In addition, there are four rearing stations; Whitefield, Richmond, Greenland and Newmarket. From these sources millions of fish are distributed each year. The department is active in securing legislation to avert the destruction of all wild life in New Hampshire and to foster a sound conservation policy. With its numerous sanctuaries and refuges,—there are thirteen in the state—and the whole-hearted co-operation of the sporting clubs, New Hampshire is truly a sportsman's paradise. Deer have never been reported more plentiful since the time of the Indian.

"COME TO NEW HAMPSHIRE"

New Hampshire believes in progress and development in every direction. She invites the whole world to visit her mountains, the "playground of America." Those seeking opportunity for profitable farming will do well to write for further information to the Commissioner of Agriculture, Concord, N. H.; sportsmen are invited to send for literature and advice to the Fish and Game Director, Concord, N. H.; those looking for business openings, either in manufacturing enterprises or in the retail field, should correspond with the New Hampshire Planning and Development Commission, Concord, N. H.

The Boston & Maine Railroad Publicity Bureau at Boston, Mass., the New Hampshire Manufacturers' Association and the New Hampshire Historical Society, Concord, N. H., are other sources from which information not given in this volume may be secured.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

New Hampshire was one of the thirteen original colonies which revolted from English rule and founded the United States of America, one hundred and seventy years ago. When this continent was settled, New Hampshire was a part of a grant made in 1620 by James I, King of England, to the Plymouth Company, a commercial organization formed to develop the "new world." This was three hundred and twenty-five years ago.

The name of New Hampshire was first given to this section of the country in 1629, when the Plymouth Company gave a grant of part of its colonial possessions to Captain John Mason, a gentleman of Hampshire in England. New Hampshire in those days was roughly described as "that part of the main land of New England" between the Merrimack and Piscataqua rivers. It was more than a hundred years before the boundaries of the province of New Hampshire were definitely fixed, but once settled upon, in 1740 on the south and east and in 1764 on the west, these lines have remained practically intact to this day. There was, however, a long-standing dispute between New Hampshire and Vermont over the boundary line, a difference of opinion aggravated by the changing bed of the Connecticut River, which was definitely settled in 1936 thus ending a long legal dispute that lasted from 1915 to the time the markers were completed in August of 1936. The New Hampshire-Vermont boundary is described as "a line beginning at the apex of the granite monument which marks the southeast corner of Vermont and the southwest corner of New Hampshire, erected in 1897 under the supervision of commissioners of the two states, at low water mark on the west side of the Connecticut River and extending thence northerly along the western side of the river at low water mark, as the same is or would be if unaffected by improvements on the river, to the southerly line of the town of Pittsburg, New Hampshire. Such low water mark is hereby defined as the line drawn at the point to which the river recedes at its lowest stage, without reference to, and unaffected by extreme droughts, but subject to such changes as may hereafter be effected by erosion or accretion."

In 1622 a grant of part of New Hampshire was given by patent to Captain Mason and a partner, Sir Ferdinand Gorges, by the council of Plymouth. Robert Gorges was appointed the first governor, and he came to America two years later and assumed his office. Five years later the patent of Laconia was granted to a company of traders, but the extent of the company's jurisdiction was not definitely settled upon.

In 1629, the same year that the Laconian patent was granted, Captain Mason and his partner reached an agreement whereby Captain Mason took over the whole of New Hampshire and relinquished to his partner his rights on territory in Maine east of the Piscataqua River. The Council of Plymouth confirmed this division of territory.

In 1635 the Council of Plymouth re-issued its patent to Mason and then dissolved. A document purporting to be a charter directly from the king of England to Captain Mason, issued that same year, giving the captain the New Hampshire territory then held by him, is in existence, but whether or not this document is authentic is a question among historians.

The first settlement in New Hampshire was in Rye (then called "Little Harbor" and afterwards called Portsmouth,) in 1623, the second settlement at Dover in 1628, the third at Exeter in 1638, and the fourth at Hampton in 1639. The objects of these adventurers into the primitive wilderness of New Hampshire were to clear the land for cultivation, to seek for the mineral wealth which was supposed to exist, to establish and carry on fisheries on the rivers, which teemed with fish, and along the coast, and to barter with the native Indian tribes of the locality.

The Massachusetts colonists had come to America to found settlements where they might have freedom in religious worship—a freedom which, however, they were unwilling to grant to any not of their faith. It was a day when religious opinions were paramount, and politics and legislation were subordinate, when creeds claimed precedence over rights. Unless a person subscribed unreservedly to the established creed he was a heretic. In such a class were the Quakers, Roger Williams, Anne Hutchinson and her brother-in-law, Rev. John Wheelwright, a man of superior endowments and high culture, who, disenfranchised and banished from Massachusetts, led forty of his exiled adherents into the wilderness of New Hampshire and settled Exeter in July, 1638.

Underlying these early settlements was a deep religious conviction, perhaps not so radical as in Massachusetts, but still present, which again manifests itself when the people of the state, while formulating a frame of government, gave the religious idea so prominent a place in the Bill of Rights.

CAPTAIN MASON'S EFFORTS

Charles I, for political and religious reasons, had granted Mason extraordinary rights and privileges. Mason had been not only a faithful adherent of the king, but also a devout and zealous supporter of the Church of England. It was inevitable therefore that his ideas of government and religion should be distasteful to the Massachusetts colonists so near at hand.

Mason's colony was, however, solely a business venture. He established no government over it. The settlements were under the immediate direction of agents commissioned by and answerable to the proprietor. They were ruled as a body of workmen are ruled—just as the Hudson Bay Company governs through its factors.

Mason died in 1635, and while his early efforts to occupy the lands allotted to him were persevering and meritorious, the founding of colonies was a matter requiring the expenditure of large sums of money, of which neither Mason nor his descendants had command, and his plans with regard to the colonization of New Hampshire failed of execution.

There was no provincial government in those days, but each town maintained its own government. Religious differences prevented as years went on the development of a central government, and in 1641 the New Hampshire towns resigned their jurisdiction to Massachusetts and became a part of Norfolk county of that province.

BECOMES ROYAL PROVINCE, 1679

After thirty-eight years as a part of Massachusetts, New Hampshire became a province of itself in 1679 by an order of the king of England, which was preceded by a decree of the English courts to the effect that Massachusetts had no right to extend its jurisdiction over New Hampshire.

King Charles II issued a commission to John Cutts of Portsmouth in that year to be president of the province and to govern it under the king, with the aid of a council and assembly. This was the real beginning of constitutional government in this territory, which has continued without serious interruption to the present time.

The commission of the king reserved to him the right to veto all the acts of the provincial legislature and the right to dissolve the legislature at his pleasure. The New Hampshire settlers did not like this arrangement as well as they did the jurisdiction of Massachusetts.

The governors sent to the province by the king proved to be avaricious tyrants. Even the Lords of Trade in England would not uphold them in some of their actions, and time and again, at the instigation of the heirs of Captain Mason (the Masonian Proprietors, so called) the royal governors tried to force the people to surrender their titles to lands and take leases from the Masonian Proprietors.

THE MASONIAN CONTROVERSY

In 1690 the people, mindful of their former pleasant relations with Massachusetts, resolved on a second union with their old ally, and sent a petition to William and Mary of England.

Through the influence of Samuel Allen, who had bought out the interests of the Mason heirs, the king failed to grant this request, and the union, which had been accepted by Massachusetts, was short lived.

Allen was appointed governor and his son-in-law became his deputy. In this way were the claims of Mason's heirs, so abhorrent to the people, continued until the death of Allen's son early in the reign of Queen Anne. These suits and claims were finally settled in 1787 by compromise.

"There is probably no controversy on record that involved so many parties, continued so many years, and created so many lawsuits as Mason's claim to New Hampshire. Kings and queens, nobles and plebeians, proprietors and counsellors, courts and legislatures for nearly a century were constantly agitating the question of the right of soil of this wild, rough and rocky state. Generation after generation of claimants died, but the controversy lived. Judges of the king's bench and of the state courts again and again decided cases at issue, but still the spirits which avarice had conjured up would not down at their bidding. The people outlived their prosecutors and the fire went out for want of fuel." (Sanborn, History of New Hampshire.)

For forty-three years, from 1698 until 1741, New Hampshire and Massachusetts were under the same governor, although each province maintained its identity. At the expiration of this period a new arrangement was made by which New Hampshire had one of its own sons, Benning Wentworth, appointed governor, and the provincial legislature was given increased authority.

He served for twenty-six years during an era of good feeling such as the colony had never before known. He was a benefactor of Moor's Indian School, which under his successor was chartered as Dartmouth College.

He was succeeded by his nephew, John Wentworth, in 1767, who also was well received by the people and by the assembly. As governor, he granted a charter to Dartmouth College and endowed it with forty-five thousand acres of land.

"He was universally beloved by the people. He had uniformly endeavored to promote the general public welfare by encouraging commerce, constructing highways, establishing courts and fostering learning." (Sanborn.)

But in 1774, as representative of King George III, he assisted General Gage in his work on fortifications in Boston. This brought down upon him the intense dislike of the revolutionary party and he fled from the state to Boston, where he might have the protection of General Gage. Still retaining the title of governor, he returned for a time to Fort William and Mary, from which place he issued a proclamation dissolving the assembly and shortly afterwards set sail for England. He was the last of royal governors.

Before Governor Wentworth quit, the provincial legislature took official action in regard to the revolution, and a committee of safety was organized. This committee summoned a revolutionary assembly, which met in Exeter and was known as the First Provincial Congress. Four other congress of similar character followed.

The last meeting of the old provincial assembly took place in 1775. The same year the American Continental Congress gave the New Hampshire revolutionists the right to set up a new government.

THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR

About one-half of the soldiers at the Battle of Bunker Hill were New Hampshire troops under the command of such leaders as John Stark, James Reid, and Enoch Poor. Throughout the struggle for independence the revolutionary state government, under the direction of the committee of safety, of which Meshech Weare was president, furnished troops in large numbers.

General John Sullivan distinguished himself on many battlefields, and the exploits of General Stark at Bennington are incidents of renown. It was largely the New Hampshire forces which brought about the surrender of Burgoyne.

With the close of the Revolution this state entered actively into the organization of the federal government. John Langdon, one of the early governors, was the first president of the United States senate, and was nominated for vice-president of the nation.

In 1780 a petition by the slaves for freedom was circulated in this state. Dartmouth College began to develop about that time and the legislature gave the college the right to raise money by a lottery. In 1792 the first bank was chartered to do business, and the year before, the State Medical Society was founded, with Governor Joseph Bartlett at its head. In 1796 the first turnpike and state highway from Concord to Portsmouth was chartered.

SECOND WAR WITH ENGLAND

When the second war with England broke out in 1812 Governor John Langdon drafted thirty-five hundred men at the request of the president. The state militia at that time was in its most flourishing condition and consisted of three divisions, six brigades and thirty-seven regiments.

William Plumer succeeded to the governorship before hostilities had advanced, and he organized the first regiment of New Hampshire volunteers, which later became part of the regular army. In 1813 there was a political overturn, in which former Governor John T. Gilman defeated Governor Plumer for re-election. Governor Gilman was head of the Federalist party in the state, and its return to power was celebrated by abolishing the courts and turning out the judges and other officers. The Federalists were opposed to the war, but all the people, regardless of party, became afraid of English invasion and were solid in defense of the state. The inhabitants of Portsmouth in particular were frightened on several occasions of a British landing and attack, and Governor Gilman summoned the entire militia to the defense of that city.

A native of New Hampshire, Lewis Cass of Exeter, achieved military distinction in Michigan. He was later a senator from that state, candidate for the presidency in 1848 and then secretary of state under Buchanan. In 1814 a secessionary gathering was held at Hartford, Connecticut, at which delegates were present from most of the New England states. Governor Gilman was blocked in his efforts to secure New Hampshire representation at the convention by three of his councilors, who were Democrats.

DARTMOUTH "UNIVERSITY"

In 1815 a very destructive tempest occurred. That same year there was a political tempest, when former Governor Plumer was returned to power and the judges and office-holders were again addressed out of office. The state house was located on its present site during the 1815 administration. A controversy arose over Dartmouth College, which for several years was a paramount issue in state politics. The legislature changed the name to Dartmouth University and reorganized the government of the institution, but the United States Supreme Court ruled that the legislature could not overturn a charter that had been granted by the king.

In 1817 President James Monroe visited the state, and there was an era of political good feeling which lasted for many years. In 1819 the use of the power-loom was commenced at the Amoskeag Mills in Manchester, and from that time these mills developed until they became the largest in the world. A most destructive freshet in 1824 destroyed the bridges over the Merrimack river and damaged a good deal of property.

General Lafayette visited the state in 1824 and was received with the greatest enthusiasm. In 1833 President Andrew Jackson rode on horseback into Concord, accompanied by his vice-president, Martin Van Buren, his secretary of war, Lewis Cass, who was a native of Exeter; and his secretary of the navy, Levi Woodbury of Portsmouth. Partisan feeling was bitter in those days and the celebration was indulged in principally by Democrats.

DEVELOPMENT OF INDUSTRY

In 1835 and subsequent years railroads were chartered and constructed in all parts of the state and a period of great commercial development was inaugurated. This led to the growth of several towns on the railroad into cities. Chief among these was Manchester, which had a fortunate location at Amoskeag Falls, and in 1846 it was incorporated as a city.

The war with Mexico broke out that year, and although there was no great enthusiasm for the war in New Hampshire, many sons of the state, such as Franklin Pierce, John Bedell and Dr. John D. Walker, took a prominent part in the military activities. After the war many other young men emigrated to the fertile prairies of the West.

In 1850 the entire expenses of the legislative, executive and judicial departments of the state government amounted to only $36,000.

During that year a convention was held to revise the Constitution, and Franklin Pierce was its president. Two years later he was elected president of the United States, receiving the support of all but four states in the Union.

Before the Pierce administration was through the Democratic party lost control of New Hampshire. In 1855 the American or Know-Nothing party elected Ralph Metcalf governor and John P. Hale senator. From this party there developed the Republican organization, which was in power through the Civil War and for nearly twenty years after. St. Paul's School in Concord was opened in 1856 and is one of the most select preparatory institutions in the country.

THE CIVIL WAR

In 1861 the Civil War broke out. During the first year of the war New Hampshire sent eight regiments of the infantry to the front, and during the second year nine more, and in 1864 still another. Altogether about thirty-nine thousand men went from this state to fight for the preservation of the union. Nineteen hundred were killed in action or died of wounds, twenty-five hundred died of disease and two hundred and eighty-five were missing. About sixteen hundred men re-enlisted after their first term of service.

In 1866 a railroad was built up Mount Washington. The following year the department of public instruction was established and from that time the state has enjoyed universal common school education. In 1874 the Democratic party obtained control of all branches of the government for the first time since the war, and there was a complete overturn in offices. In 1878 there was a revision of the laws of the state, the new prison was built, and the militia was reorganized. Biennial elections were substituted for annual elections by an amendment to the Constitution that year. In 1887 there took place a very bitter railroad struggle in the legislature between the Concord railroad and the Boston & Maine railroad. This was followed by an organization of the Boston & Maine system throughout northern New England on a basis of leases, the New Hampshire railroads all leasing to the Boston & Maine. An attempt to reorganize the railroad by modifying or breaking the leases in 1915 and 1916 failed, and in the latter year the road went into receivership.

The history of the state since 1888 is within the memory of the generation now living and to recite it would be beyond the scope of this legislative manual, which is designed more to preserve facts concerning the early days of the state's history. For the past fifty years New Hampshire has grown in every way. Her industries have flourished, her population has increased, her churches, schools, and colleges have expanded, and her attractions as a summer resort have become known to all the world.

THE STATE HOUSE

The seat of government is at the state house in Concord and has been for over 135 years although the present capitol building is only 129 years old and has been twice remodelled. Twice have strenuous efforts been made to remove the capital to Manchester, the largest city in the state.

During the Revolutionary War the seat of government was at Exeter and all the sessions of the provincial congress or convention and the colonial house of representatives were held in that academic town. The first six sessions of the state legislature assembled at Exeter also. In 1777 the legislature met at Portsmouth for a change and again in 1780, but all the other meetings took place at Exeter until 1782, when Concord became the capital. From then until 1807 the legislature met at various places, including Concord, Exeter, Portsmouth, Hopkinton, Charlestown, Dover and Amherst. Concord sessions in those days and in the later period from 1807 to 1819 took place in the old town house that stood on the site of the Merrimack county building of today.

The state house was built in 1816 to 1819 and cost $82,000. On Tuesday, September 24, 1816, the corner stone was laid. The building was completed, and the legislature first convened in it, in June, 1819. The lot of land, consisting of about two acres, was given by the town and the stone for the building was taken out of "Rattlesnake Hill" and dressed by convicts at the state prison. At the first legislature that sat in it there were twelve senators and one hundred and ninety-two representatives.

During the Civil War the state house was too small to accommodate the legislature and officials. Manchester offered to build a new one to cost $500,000 and give it to the state for the honor of becoming the seat of government and one of the greatest and closest battles in the history of the legislature was fought over this proposition. Manchester was defeated and instead of moving, the state decided to enlarge and remodel the old building, which was done in 1864-66.

The building was remodelled after the architecture of the Hotel Des Invalides in Paris and from that day to this it has been regarded as one of the most meritorious structures from an architectural viewpoint that there is in the country. The government outgrew the building again in 1909 so that an addition was built on which placed the state house in its present form. Before the addition was made Manchester made its second attempt to become the capital by offering $1,000,000 to build a new building. The struggle between the two cities was fought all over again with the same result.

The cost of the first remodelling of the building was about $200,000, and of the second, $400,000.

One of the interesting attractions in the state house is the gallery of portraits in the principal offices and corridors. These portraits are of famous sons of the state, including the heroes of civil and military life, former governors, senators, secretaries of state and others.

Another noted attraction is the hall of flags in the foyer of the state house. Here are displayed many of the old provincial banners and the regimental colors of some of New Hampshire's finest. Some of these old flags were actually carried in decisive battles on the bloody fields of a hard-won independence and are an integral part of New Hampshire's interesting background.

By 1937, with many of the state's large and important departments scattered over the city of Concord in privately-owned buildings, it became increasingly evident that additional offices were a growing necessity. In the past two decades, state and federal government had grown by leaps and bounds and once again the state house was no longer adequate to house its rapidly growing and increasing family.

Governor Francis Parnell Murphy, in his message to the incoming legislature, on January 7, 1937, recommended the construction of a state office building adjacent to the state house, pointing out that the constantly mounting cost of rentals for outside space would go far towards defraying carrying charges and amortizing bonds for a new structure. He stressed the increase in efficiency of the departments and the reduction in costs of operation with the state government under one roof, so to speak, whereas many of the departments were fully half a mile away from the state house at that time. Furthermore, the general public, seeking contact with the various branches of state government, would find it decidedly more convenient to find their government all in one place rather than so widely scattered and so difficult to locate.

On July 21, 1937, the legislature appropriated $600,000 to be expended, together with such sums as might be received from the federal government, for the erection of a state house annex. The governor and council commissioned Wells, Hudson and Granger, Architects of Hanover, New Hampshire, to draw plans and specifications for a state office building or annex.

An application for federal assistance was immediately made by Governor Murphy, but the federal public works administration had already allocated all grants for aid on such building projects and it looked doubtful that New Hampshire would receive an appropriation although the application was pending. The project was dormant until early in 1938 when Governor Murphy again made personal appeal for assistance when it became known that additional appropriations had been granted for the federal works building program.

By extraordinary good fortune this project became number one on the list for the entire nation and, in June, 1938, New Hampshire received a grant of $288,000. Later, a credit on the sums invested in the building site was granted, making a total grant of $327,000.

The corner stone for this newest addition to the state house was laid by Governor Murphy on October 25, 1938 and the building was completed on October 27, 1939. The first department to take up quarters in the new annex being the New Hampshire state police department. The building was officially dedicated on January 18, 1940. It houses twenty-one separate department offices with upward of 450 employees and is connected by an underground tunnel with the state house.

As parts of Massachusetts Bay Colony (1641-3 to 1679) the towns of Hampton, Exeter, Dover, and Strawberry Bank were comprised within Norfolk county, which was one of the four shires, viz., Essex, Middlesex, Suffolk, and Norfolk, into which the Bay Colony was separated from "3d month, 10th day 1643."

The Province of New Hampshire agitated the subject of county establishment for years previous to decisive action in 1769, one plan, which came to nought in 1755, being to make two counties, Portsmouth and Cumberland, with the Merrimack as the dividing line.

The act which passed April 29, 1769, contained the provision that it should not take effect until "his majesty's royal approbation thereof be known," and the further provision that "said counties of Strafford and Grafton shall be for the present annexed to and deemed and taken as parts and members of the County of Rockingham * * * until the governor by and with the advice of the council shall declare them respectively sufficient for the exercise of their respective jurisdictions and no longer." Governor John Wentworth, in a message to the house of representatives in March, 1771, said "It gives me great pleasure to inform you that his majesty has been graciously pleased to approve and confirm the act for dividing this Province into counties." The existence of Rockingham, Hillsborough, and Cheshire counties began on March 19, 1771, Strafford and Grafton having received authority to exercise and enjoy county privileges, as set forth in Governor John Wentworth's message to the house on May 28, 1772, their separation from Rockingham became effective on June 5, 1773, by the terms of the act of February 5, 1773, "fixing the times and places for holding courts in * * * Grafton county," four months being allowed for the building of "prisons, court houses," etc.

FIRST DIVISION

The division of 1769, by the "Act for dividing this Province into Counties and for the more easy administration of Justice," was as follows: "The bounds of the first County to begin at the mouth of Piscataqua River and to run up the same to the Easterly corner of Newmarket including the River, and from thence Northwesterly by the Easterly and Northerly sidelines of Newmarket, Epping, Nottingham, Chichester and Canterbury to the River, and down the same line of Concord including the River, then round the Westerly Lines of Bow, Concord and Pembroke to Merrimack River, thence down the same to the North west corner of Derryfield, thence by the Easterly lines of Derryfield, Litchfield and Nottingham West to the Province Line, thence by said line to the Sea, thence by the Sea to the bounds first mentioned, including all that part of the Isles of Shoals which belongs to this Province.

"The Bounds of the Second County to begin at the North west corner of Canterbury, and from thence to cross the River, then down the River to Pemigewasset, then to run up Pemigewasset River to Campton, thence round the Westerly end of Campton, and by the Northerly sidelines of Campton, Sandwich & Tamworth, & thence Easterly to the Province line, on the same course with the Northerly sideline of Eaton, thence down said Province line to the line of the first County, thence by the same to the bounds first mentioned.

"The bounds of the Third County to begin at the South East corner of Nottingham West, thence by the Province line to the South East corner of Rindge, thence by the Easterly sideline of Rindge, Monadnock Number two, Dublin, the Townships Number Six, Number seven & Number Eight, thence to the South end of Sunnape Pond, thence by the Easterly side of said Pond, to the North end thereof, thence by the North westerly sideline of Dantzick Heidlebourg, and by the Northerly sidelines of Heidlebourg and North Westerly sideline of Emery's Town to Pemigewasset River, thence down the same to the bounds of the first County, thence by the same to the bounds first mentioned.

"The bounds of the Fourth County to begin at the South East corner of Rindge, & from thence to run Westerly by the Province line to the Western Banks of Connecticut River, thence up the same till it comes opposite to the North west corner of Plainfield, then crossing the River to the last mentioned corner of Plainfield, thence by the Northerly sidelines of Plainfield & Grantham, to the North East corner of Grantham thence by the Easterly sideline of Grantham & the North sideline of Saville to the boundary line of the third County, thence by the same to the bounds first mentioned.

"And the Fifth County to contain all the lands in the Province not comprehended in the other Countys.

"And all the Towns, Parishes, Precincts or Places within the bounds aforesaid respectively shall be deemed, accepted, named & taken as parts and Members of the respective Countys aforesaid. And the Names of the said Counties shall be and are hereby as follows vizt the name of the first County Rockingham, the name of the second County Strafford, the Name of the Third County Hillsborough, the Name of the fourth County Cheshire, the Name of the fifth County Grafton. * * *

"That the said Counties of Strafford & Grafton shall be for the present annexed to, & deemed & taken as parts and Members of the County of Rockingham and Subject to the Jurisdiction and Authority of the Courts, Magistrates and Offices of the said County of Rockingham to all intents and purposes and shall remain so annexed, deemed & taken and Subject until the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Council shall declare them respectively sufficient for the exercise of their respective Jurisdictions and no longer. * * *

"That the Times and Places of holding the said Courts in the said Counties of Strafford and Grafton shall be established as the Governor, Council and Assembly shall Judge most Convenient at the Time the Governor and Council shall determine they may assume the actual exercise of their County Privileges.—But that this act nor any Clause therein shall be in force nor have any Effect till his Majesty's Royal approbation thereof be known."

The supplementary act of Jan. 29, 1841, established a boundary line "beginning at the easterly termination of the line dividing the towns of Meredith and Moultonborough: thence running easterly to the Southerly point of Long Island in Winnipissiogee Lake: thence easterly to the Southerly point of Parker's island: thence easterly to the westerly termination of the line dividing the towns of Wolfborough and Alton: and all the lands and waters lying northerly of Said line and between that and Said towns of Moultonborough, Tuftonborough and Wolfborough shall constitute a part of Said County of Carroll: and all the lands and waters lying Southerly of Said Line and between that and Said towns of Meredith, Gilford and Alton Shall constitute a part of Said County of Belknap."

THE COUNTIES

When New Hampshire was a part of the colony of Massachusetts Bay, from 1641 to 1679, the principal towns of New Hampshire were part of Norfolk county in Massachusetts. New Hampshire did not divide herself into counties, however, until 1769, six years before the Revolution. In that year the five counties of Rockingham, Strafford, Hillsborough, Cheshire and Grafton were established.

Coos was the sixth county, established in 1803. Merrimack was established in 1823, Sullivan in 1827, and Belknap and Carroll in 1840. Since the original division into counties the legislature on twenty occasions has amended and changed the layout. The following is a list of counties in their customary order, giving the name of each, the date of its establishment and the palce of the county seat.

Name	Date	County Seat
Rockingham	1769	Exeter
Strafford	1769	Dover
Belknap	1840	Laconia
Carroll	1840	Ossipee
Merrimack	1823	Concord
Hillsborough	1769	Nashua
Cheshire	1769	Keene
Sullivan	1827	Newport
Grafton	1769	Haverhill
Coos	1803	Lancaster

Rockingham county is in the southeastern part of the state and was the first part settled. It was named for the Marquis of Rockingham and includes the city of Portsmouth and thirty-six towns.

Strafford county is in the eastern part of the state north of Rockingham county. It was named for the Earl of Strafford and includes three cities and ten towns.

Belknap county takes in the lake region in the central part of the state. It was named for Dr. Jeremy Belknap, who wrote a history of the state, and includes the city of Laconia and ten towns.

Carroll county is in the east central part of the state and is sparsely settled. It was named for Charles Carroll of Carrollton, Virginia, who signed the Declaration of Independence, and includes eighteen towns.

Merrimack county is in the Merrimack river region in the south central part of the state. It was named for the river and includes two cities and twenty-five towns.

Hillsborough county is in south central part of the state and is the most thickly populated. It was named for the Earl of Hillsborough, a councilor of King George III, and includes two cities and twenty-five towns.

Cheshire county is in the southwestern corner of the state, and at the time the state government was organized there was some controversy over whether the territory now embraced in the county belonged to New Hampshire or Vermont. It was named for Cheshire county in England and includes the city of Keene and twenty-two towns.

Sullivan county is in the west central part of the state, and like Cheshire county, was embroiled in early boundary disputes. It was named for John Sullivan, a general in the Revolutionary army and later governor, and includes fifteen towns.

Grafton county is in the northwestern part of the state and large parts of it are sparsely settled. It was named for an English nobleman and includes thirty-nine towns.

Coos county is in the northern part of the state and is the largest county. It was named after an Indian word meaning "crooked" and was so called on account of the bend in the Connecticut river. It has a area of about a million acres and includes the city of Berlin and twenty-one towns.

THE CITIES

Berlin was granted in 1771 to Sir William Mayne and others and named "Maynesborough" in honor of the grantee. The first settlement was made in 1821 by William Sessions. In 1829 the town was incorporated and the name changed to Berlin after the capitol of Germany. In 1897 it became a city and is the most northern city in the state. In 1902 an electric railroad was built to Gorham. Coos county, second congressional, first councilor and first senatorial districts.

Concord was originally known as "Penacook" and was granted by the Massachusetts Colony in 1659 to Richard Waldron and others. It was regranted by the same authority in 1725 to Ebenezer Eastman and others, and he was the first settler in 1727. The town was incorporated in 1733 by Massachusetts and the name changed to "Rumford." It was reincorporated in 1765 by New Hampshire and the name changed to Concord. There was a long standing dispute between New Hampshire's grant of 1727 and the Massachusetts grant, which the king settled in 1762 in favor of "Rumford." Parts of Canterbury and Loudon were annexed in 1784 and part of Bow in 1804. Concord became the seat of government about 1800. The first state capitol was built in 1816 and remodeled in 1865, and the legislature has met in it since 1819. Concord became a city in 1853. Part of Bow was annexed in 1856. Merrimack county, second congressional, fifth councilor and seventh, ninth and fifteenth senatorial districts.

Dover was settled in 1623 and was originally called "Hilton's Point" from the name of one of the first settlers, Edward Hilton. Later the name "Northam" was given it, and finally Dover, after an English town. The settlement at the falls of the river, now the compact part of the city, was called "Cocheco," an Indian word meaning foaming water. Dover suffered severely at the hands of the Indians through its early history, and in 1689, when Major Richard Waldron was in command of the militia, became the victim of a massacre which nearly destroyed the settlement. In 1713 Newington was set off as a parish; in 1729, Somersworth; in 1732, Durham; and in 1755, Madbury. In 1792 the legislature met here. Dover became a city in 1855. Part of Rollinsford was annexed in 1879. Strafford county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-first senatorial districts.

Franklin was incorporated in 1828 from parts of Andover, Salisbury, Northfield and Sanbornton and was named in honor of Benjamin Franklin. The first settlers were John Webster and Ezekiel Webster in 1759. Part of Franklin was annexed to Salisbury in 1869. It became a city in 1895, and is the smallest city in the state. Merrimack county, second congressional, fifth councilor and seventh senatorial districts.

Keene was granted in 1733 by the Massachusetts colony and named "Upper Ashuelot." Early settlements were made, which were abandoned in 1746 on account of Indian raids, and the first permanent settlements were in 1750. The town was incorporated in 1753 and the name changed to Keene in honor of Sir Benjamin Keene. The northeastern part of the town was put into the incorporation of Sullivan in 1787 and another part, together with parts of Nelson and Marlborough, went to make up the incorporation of Roxbury in 1812. In the same year part of Swanzey was annexed to Keene. In 1794 part of Keene was annexed to Sullivan. In 1865 Keene refused to accept a city charter, but in 1873 accepted one. Cheshire county, second congressional, fourth councilor and tenth senatorial districts.

Laconia was set off from Meredith in 1855 and incorporated. Part of Gilford was annexed in 1874 and part of Laconia annexed to Gilford two years later. It became a city in 1893. Belknap county, first congressional, fifth councilor and sixth senatorial districts.

Manchester was originally known as "Harrytown" or "Old Harry Town." The place was granted by the Masonian Proprietors in 1735 to the "Snow-shoe men" of Captain William Tyng and the name changed to "Tyng's Town." In 1751 it was incorporated and the name changed to "Derryfield." The first town meeting was held in the house of John Hall that same year. In 1795 a gore of land was annexed on the north side. In 1810 the name was changed to Manchester, after the cotton center of England. In 1846 it became a city and is now the largest city in the state. In 1853 the village of "Amoskeag" was severed from Goffstown and annexed, and the village of "Squog" from Bedford, so that Manchester now takes in territory on both sides of the Merrimack river. Attempts to annex more territory from Bedford, Goffstown and Hooksett in the legislature of 1915 were unsuccessful. Efforts to make this the capital were unsuccessful in 1863 and in 1907. Hillsborough county, first congressional, third councilor and sixteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth, nineteenth and twenty-second senatorial districts.

Nashua was granted in 1673 and named "Dunstable" or "Old Dunstable," and a charter was obtained from Massachusetts. In 1739 part of "Dunstable" was set off and made into "West Parish of Dunstable," which later became Hollis. In 1741 the boundary between New Hampshire and Massachusetts was established, so that it divided "Dunstable" very nearly in the middle. In 1746 the New Hampshire part of "Dunstable" was incorporated. In 1763 part of the town, known as "One Pine Hill," was annexed to Hollis, and in 1773 additional territory was annexed to the same town. In 1825 mills were built in "Dunstable," which made it an industrial center, and in 1835 the Boston & Lowell railroad went into operation. The name was changed to Nashua in 1836. Part of the town was set off in 1842 and incorporated into "Nashville," but in 1853 these two towns were reunited and made into the city of Nashua. Hillsborough county, second congressional, fourth councilor and twelfth and thirteenth senatorial districts.

Portsmouth was settled in 1623 and is one of the oldest cities in the country. In 1631 the "Council of Plymouth" granted the place as a township and named it "Piscataqua," which later was changed to "Strawberry Bank." In 1653 the general court of Massachusetts incorporated it and changed the name to Portsmouth after an English city. In 1693 part of Portsmouth was set off and incorporated into Newcastle. In 1704 another part was set off and incorporated into Greenland, and in 1721 more territory was severed and annexed to Greenland. In 1726 part of Portsmouth, together with other territory, was incorporated into Rye. In 1821 part of Newington was annexed to Portsmouth. Portsmouth became a city in 1849. In 1905 the envoys of Russia and Japan met in this city and signed the Treaty of Portsmouth, which brought an end to the Russian-Japanese war. This city has a navy yard, large breweries, and many industries. Its harbor is one of the best on the coast, with a twelve-mile channel and big shipping facilities by rail and water. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-fourth senatorial districts.

Rochester was incorporated in 1722 and included what are now Farmington and Milton. The first settlements were made in 1728 by Captain Timothy Roberts and others, but Indian depredations prevented permanent settlement until about 1760. One of the first settlers in 1728 was Benjamin Richards, who soon left Rochester and settled what is now Atkinson. In 1798 the western part of the town was set off and incorporated into Farmington. In 1802 another part was set off and incorporated into Milton. In 1846 part of Rochester was annexed to Barrington. It became a city in 1891. Rochester was the home of John P. Hale, who ran for president in 1852; Nathanial Upham, who was a congressman in 1817; David Barker, who was a congressman in 1827; Dr. James Farrington, who was a congressman in 1837; and Jacob H. Ela, who served in congress from 1867 to 1884. Strafford county, first congressional, second councilor and twentieth senatorial districts.

Somersworth was set off from Dover in 1729 and incorporated as a parish. In 1754 it became a town. The first manufacturing company in the state was incorporated at Salmon Falls in 1761. Part of Somersworth was set off and incorporated into Rollinsford in 1849. Somersworth became a city in 1893. Strafford county, first congressional, second councilor and twentieth senatorial districts.

THE TOWNS

Acworth was granted in 1752 to Colonel Sampson Stoddard of Chelmsford, Mass., incorporated in 1766, and was known as "Burnet." It was regranted in 1766 as "Ackworth" and again in 1772 as "Acworth." Three Connecticut men, Joseph Chatterson, William Keyes and Samuel Smith settled the town in 1767. Sullivan county, second congressional, fifth councilor and eighth senatorial districts.

Albany was granted in 1766 to Clement March and others, and was known as "Burton." A boundary dispute between "Burton" and Tamworth was settled in 1796. "Burton" was severed from Grafton county in 1800 and annexed to Carroll county. In 1833 its name was changed to Albany. Part of Albany was annexed to Tamworth in 1857. First congressional, first councilor and fourth senatorial districts.

Alexandria was granted in 1753 by the Masonian Proprietors to Joseph Butterfield, Jr., and others. The charter was renewed in 1767. The town was regranted in 1773 to Jonas Minot and others, and in 1782 it was incorporated. In 1773 a large addition had been granted, which was incorporated as New London in 1779. In 1788 part of the town, together with a part of Hill (then known as New Chester), was incorporated into Bridgewater, and in 1795 another part of Alexandria was incorporated into Danbury. Part of Orange was annexed in 1820 and part of Alexandria was annexed to Hill the same year. Grafton county, second congressional, first councilor and fifth senatorial districts.

Allenstown was granted in 1722 to the children of Governor Samuel Allen, for whom it is named, as "a tract of land four miles square adjoining Chester side line and Nottingham head line." It was settled in 1747 by Robert Buntin, John Wolcutt, Andrew Smith, Daniel Evans, John Perkins and others, and in 1759 part of the town was incorporated with Pembroke. In 1815 a part of Bow was annexed and the town of Allenstown was incorporated in 1831. In 1853 part of Hooksett was annexed to Allenstown. Merrimack county, first congressional, fifth councilor and fourteenth senatorial districts.

Alstead was granted in 1752 by Governor Benning Wentworth and named "New-town" or "Newton," but the grantees failed to comply with this charter and lost their title. In 1763 the governor regranted it to Samuel Chase and seventy associates and the name was changed to Alstead and it was incorporated. The next year the town was settled by Simon Baker, Isaac Cady and William Druse, and other early families in town were those named Burroughs, Clark, Warner, Stephens, Chandler, Beckwick, Warde and Shepard. In 1772 a charter was extended to it by Governor Wentworth, who held a reservation of five hundred acres in the northwest corner of the town. Cheshire county, second congressional, fourth councilor and tenth senatorial districts.

Alton was incorporated in 1796, as follows: "Easterly on New Durham, northerly on Wolfeborough, northwesterly on Winnipiseokee Pond, westerly on Gilmanton, and partly on Barnstead." It was formerly known as "New Durham Gore" and had been settled in 1770. In 1799 Barndoor Island was annexed to Alton. Parts of the town were annexed to Barnstead in 1840 and to Wolfeboro in 1849. Belknap county, first congressional, second councilor and sixth senatorial districts.

Amherst was granted in 1728 by the Massachusetts colony as "Narragansett No. 3," and was incorporated as Amherst in 1760. Part of "Monson" was annexed in 1770. Part of its territory was severed from Amherst in 1794 to go into the incorporation of Milford. Another part of the town was incorporated as Mont Vernon in 1803. The legislature met here in 1794. Amherst sent two hundred seventy-five men to the Revolutionary War and was represented in the "Boston Tea Party" in 1773 and the Battle of Lexington and Concord in 1775. Part of Milford was annexed to Amherst in 1842. Hillsborough county, second congressional, fourth councilor and twelfth senatorial districts.

Andover was granted by the Masonian Proprietors in 1751 to Edmund Brown and others and was named "New Breton" in honor of the captors of Cape Breton, some of whom were grantees. It was also called "Brown's town" and "Emery's town." In 1779 the town was incorporated and the name changed to Andover after an English town. The first settlement was in 1761 by Joseph Fellows. Andover is twenty-nine miles from Concord and contains five churches and two factories. Proctor academy is at Andover center. Merrimack county, second congressional, fifth councilor and seventh senatorial districts.

Antrim was settled in 1744 by Philip Riley, a Scotchman, and in 1767 by James Aiken. Ten years later the town was incorporated.

In 1849 part of Antrim was annexed to Hancock. Hillsborough county, second congressional, fourth councilor and ninth senatorial districts.

Ashland was incorporated from a part of Holderness in 1868. Grafton county, second congressional, first councilor and fifth senatorial districts.

Atkinson was purchased from the Indians in 1642 and a deed was given by Passaquo and Saggahew, with the consent of their chief, Passaconnaway. It was named in honor of Theodore Atkinson. It was settled in 1728 by Benjamin Richards of Rochester and three men from Haverhill, Mass. It was incorporated in 1767 from a part of Plaistow. Part of Atkinson was annexed to Hampstead in 1859. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-third senatorial districts.

Auburn was formerly a part of Chester and was known as the "West Parish" of that town. Its records begin in 1738, four years after the first minister, Reverend John Wilson, settled there. It was severed from Chester and incorporated as Auburn in 1845. Rockingham county, first congressional, third councilor and twenty-second senatorial districts.

Barnstead was granted in 1727 to Reverend Joseph Adams of Newington and others. Part of Alton was annexed in 1840. Belknap county, first congressional, second councilor and sixth senatorial districts.

Barrington was granted in 1722 to "our loving subjects, the present proprietors of the iron works lately set up at Lamprey river, viz., the Hon. John Wentworth, Esq., George Jaffrey, Esq., and Archibald Macphedris, Esq., and Robert Willson." An enabling act organizing the town was passed in 1742. Strafford county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-first senatorial districts.

Bartlett was incorporated in 1790. Part of the town of Jackson (then "Adams") was annexed to it in 1819, and in 1822 a tract of Bartlett was annexed to "Adams." State land was annexed to Bartlett in 1823 and 1836. Part of the town was annexed to Jackson in 1839. Part of Chatham was annexed to Bartlett in 1869 and a tract of Hart's Location in 1878. Carroll county, first congressional, first councilor and fourth senatorial districts.

Bath was laid out in 1760 and designed as "No. 10" on the Connecticut river. The following year it was granted to Andrew Gardner and sixty-one others. The first settlements were in 1765 by Gardner, Ebenezer Richardson and Benjamin Sawyer. During the two following years twenty-one more settlers, including John Sawyer, Jaasiel Harriman, Moses Pike and William Eastman, arrived. The original charter was forfeited and a new one granted in 1769. The town contained seventy families during the Revolution and furnished forty-six soldiers. In 1897 the northwestern part of Bath was annexed to Monroe. Grafton county, second congressional, first councilor and third senatorial districts.

Bedford was one of the Massachusetts grants of 1733 and was known as "Narragansett No. 5" and later as "Souhegan East." It was settled in 1736, and among the early settlers were Matthew Patten, who was the first judge of probate after the Revolution; and Robert Walker and James Walker, cousins of General John Stark, who cleared the first land in town. "Souhegan East" was incorporated in 1750 as Bedford. Zachariah Chandler was born there in 1813 and moved to Michigan twenty years later, where he became one of the leading men of that state. Part of Bedford was annexed to Manchester in 1853. Hillsborough county, first congressional, fourth councilor and fourteenth senatorial districts.

Belmont was originally called Gilmanton until June 28, 1859, when Gilmanton was set off and incorporated. "The territory remaining" was called Upper Gilmanton until 1869, when the name was changed to Belmont. Belknap county, first congressional, second councilor and sixth senatorial districts.

Bennington was incorporated in 1842 and made up from parts of Deering, Francestown, Greenfield and Hancock. In 1842 part of "Society Land" was annexed to it. Hillsborough county, second congressional, fourth councilor and eleventh senatorial districts.

Benton was granted in 1764 to Theophilus Fitch and sixty-four others, of whom eleven bore the name of Weed, and was known as "Coventry." In 1840 the legislature changed the name to Benton. Grafton county, second congressional, first councilor and third senatorial districts.

Bethlehem was granted in 1774 and called "Lloyd Hills," and was incorporated in 1799, bounded by Franconia, Littleton, Whitefield and Carroll. Additions were made to the town in 1848 and 1873. Grafton county, second congressional, first councilor and second senatorial districts.

Boscawen was granted in 1733 by the Colony of Massachusetts Bay and was known as "Contoocook." In 1760 it was incorporated as Boscawen for two years and in 1763 this charter was indefinitely continued. The first settlement was made the year of the grant. In 1791 an attempt was made to divide the town. Part of the town was set off and incorporated as Webster on the Fourth of July, 1860. Merrimack county, second congressional, fifth councilor and seventh senatorial districts.

Bow was granted in 1727. In 1759 a part of Bow, together with "Suncook" and "Buckstreet," was incorporated as the "Parish of Pembroke." In 1765 part of Bow was set off and incorporated into Concord. In 1804 part of the town was annexed to Concord and part to Pembroke, and in 1815 another part was annexed to Allenstown. In 1856 part of Bow was annexed to Concord. Merrimack county, second congressional, fifth councilor and fourteenth senatorial districts.

Bradford was settled in 1771 by William Presbury of Henniker and originally of Stowe, Mass. Colonel Bradford granted him all the land he could encircle in a day's work on condition he would build a house and live in it. Three years later some people from Bradford, Mass., settled there and called the place "New Bradford." In 1787 "New Bradford," "Washington Gore" and a part of Washington were incorporated as the town of Bradford and annexed to Hillsborough county. Part of Newbury (then "Fishersfield") was annexed in 1796 and another part in 1859. In 1796 the first meeting house was built at "the Center" and it was used jointly for church and town purposes. Merrimack county, second congressional, fifth councilor and ninth senatorial districts.

Brentwood was formerly a part of Exeter and was set off from that town in 1742 as "The Parish of Brintwood." Two years later the town was incorporated and an election was held. In 1764 the western part of Brentwood was cut off and made into a new town, known as "Poplin," which was later changed to Fremont. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-third senatorial districts.

Bridgewater was formerly a part of Hill ("New Chester") and was incorporated as a separate town in 1788. Jonathan Crawford was the first settler. In 1819 the southern part of Bridgewater and the northern part of "New Chester" were incorporated into a new town which was called Bristol. Grafton county, second congressional, first councilor and fifth senatorial districts.

Bristol was incorporated in 1819 from portions of Bridgewater and Hill (then known as "New Chester"). Grafton county, second congressional, first councilor and fifth senatorial districts.

Brookfield was formerly a part of Middleton ("Kingswood") and was incorporated in 1794. The first town meeting was held the next year at the house of Richard Hanson. Carroll county, first congressional, second councilor and fourth senatorial districts.

Brookline was largely a part of the grant of the town of Dunstable in 1637. It was incorporated as a separate town in 1769 and called "Raby." Parts of Hollis were annexed in 1786 and 1787. The name was changed to "Brooklyne" in 1798 and has been since modernized to Brookline. Hillsborough county, second congressional, fourth councilor and twelfth senatorial districts.

Campton was granted in 1761, settled in 1765 and regranted in 1767. It was annexed to Grafton county in 1782. Part of the town was annexed to Plymouth in 1860. Plymouth and Campton were connected by telephone in 1881. Second congressional, first councilor and third senatorial districts.

Canaan was granted to sixty-two men in 1761, settled in 1766 and an extended grant received in 1769. The early settlers were John Schofield and Thomas Miner. In 1846 "Dame's Gore" was annexed and in 1851, on the Fourth of July, "Gates' Gore" was annexed. Grafton county, second congressional, first councilor and fifth senatorial districts.

Candia was settled by William Turner in 1748 and by John Sargent and others in 1755. It was a part of Chester until 1763, when it was set off and incorporated. The line between Candia and Chester was established in 1848 after a long dispute. Rockingham county, first congressional, third councilor and twenty-second senatorial districts.

Canterbury was granted and incorporated in 1727 and full town privileges were given it in 1741. The first settlements were between 1733 and 1750 by Daniel, Samuel and Simon Ames, brothers; Richard Blanchard, Jeremiah and Thomas Clough, William Curry, John Dolloff, John and William Forrest, Jr., John Glines, Ephraim Hackett, James Head, James Lindsay, Lieutenant William Miles and his son, Josiah; Ensign John Moore and three sons, and others. An additional grant to the town was made in 1765. In 1765 part of the town was set off and incorporated in 1773 into Loudon. In 1780 another part was incorporated into Northfield. In 1784 part of Canterbury was annexed to Concord and another part to Loudon in 1853. The population of the town at the first census in 1790 was 1,038 and its largest population was 1,702 in the year 1820. The Shaker society was organized in 1792, the fifth such society in the country. There are three churches: the Center Congregational, organized in 1761; the Free Baptist, in 1780; and the Hill's Corner church, in 1839. The seminary was founded in 1889 by the will of John Kezer. The Social library was incorporated in 1797. The Mutual Fire Insurance company was incorporated in 1849, one of the oldest. Canterbury was the home of Reverend Abiel Foster, pastor of the Center church, from 1761 to 1779; a continental congressman from 1783 to 1786, and a member of the first, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh national congresses. Another resident, Dr. Joseph M. Harper, was congressman from 1831 to 1835. Merrimack county, first congressional, fifth councilor and seventh senatorial districts.

Carroll was granted in 1772 and known as "Bretton-woods" and in 1832 it was incorporated as Carroll. Annexations to it were made in 1848 and 1878 from parts of "Nash and Sawyer's Location," and in 1887 all of "Crawford's Grant" and the balance of "Nash and Sawyer's Location" were annexed. Coos county, second congressional, first councilor and second senatorial districts.

Center Harbor was set off from New Hampton in 1797. Part of Meredith was annexed to it in 1873. Belknap county, first congressional, fifth councilor and sixth senatorial districts.

Charlestown was granted in 1735 as "No. 4" and regranted in 1753. Charlestown possesses historical importance as having been for many years the most advanced English settlement towards Canada, and the scene of repeated conflicts between English and French-Indian forces. A log fort built in 1744 withstood several attacks, the last and fiercest being in 1747, when Captain Phineas Stevens with thirty men defended it successfully against some seven hundred French and Indians in a three days' battle. This fight definitely determined the English supremacy in northern New England and ranks among the most important fights of the half century of conflict which delimited French influence in America. Parts of Charlestown and Walpole were erected into the town of Langdon in 1787 when the legislature was in session in Charlestown. Part of Unity was annexed to it in 1810. Sullivan county, second congressional, fifth councilor and eighth senatorial districts.

Chatham was granted in 1767 and settled in 1781. An additional grant was made in 1817. Chatham was annexed to Strafford county in 1823 and part of Conway was annexed to Chatham at the same time. In 1840 Chatham was included in the new county of Carroll and in 1869 part of the town was annexed to Bartlett. First congressional, first councilor and fourth senatorial districts.

Chester was granted in 1720 as "Cheshire" and two years later was incorporated as Chester. In 1763 part of the town was incorporated into Candia and another part in Raymond the next year. In 1822 part of Chester, with parts of Dunbarton and Goffstown, were incorporated into Hooksett. In 1845 still another portion was incorporated as Auburn. In 1848 the line between Chester and Candia was established after a long dispute. Rockingham county, first congressional, third councilor and twenty-second senatorial districts.

Chesterfield was granted in 1752 as "No. 1" and regranted as Chesterfield in 1760. It was settled the following year. Cheshire county, second congressional, fourth councilor and tenth senatorial districts.

Chichester was granted in 1727 by Lieutenant Govenor John Wentworth to Nathaniel Gookin and others, including most of the state officers. It was eight miles square. The northern part was set off and incorporated as Pittsfield in 1782. Merrimack county, first congressional, fifth councilor and fourteenth senatorial districts.

Claremont, the largest town in the state, was granted in 1764 to Josiah Willard of Winchester and sixty-eight others. Shares were reserved for Governor Benning Wentworth, the Church of England, the first minister, each school and the propagation of the gospel, and all the white pine trees were reserved for the King's Navy. Three of the grantees settled there, Samuel Ashley and his two sons, Samuel Ashley, Jr., and Oliver Ashley. Doctor William Sumner and his brother, Benjamin Sumner, who were respectively the father and uncle of Clement Sumner, another grantee, were among the first settlers. The first meeting of the proprietors was held in Winchester in 1767 and the second in Claremont later the same year. A tract of five hundred acres was laid out as "the governor's farm," and forty acres were given to William Porter for doing settlement duty. On their arrival in Claremont the proprietors found two "squatters," Moses Spofford and David Lynde, who are said to have settled as early as 1762, and in 1763 was born in a log cabin Elijah Spofford, the first white child in town. In 1767 Benjamin Tyler came from Connecticut and built a mill on the Sugar river. Later he brought ore from Charlestown and started a forge and smelting works, and later still built a flax mill. In 1813 Asa Meacham built the first woolen mill in that section. In 1810 the first Merino sheep ever imported into this country were brought by William Jarvis, consul to Spain, and introduced into Claremont by his kinsman, Dr. Leonard Jarvis. Part of Unity was annexed in 1828. Sullivan county, second congressional, fifth councilor and eighth senatorial districts.

Clarksville was settled in 1832 by Benjamin Clark and was known as "Dartmouth College Grant" until 1853, when the place was incorporated as Clarksville. The privilege of collecting the town taxes was sold to John Roby in 1832 for twelve and one half cents. Coos county, second congressional, first councilor and second senatorial districts.

Colebrook was granted in 1762 as "Dryden" and regranted in 1770 under the name of "Colebrooke Towne" and incorporated as Colebrook in 1896. The Upper Coos railroad to Colebrook was opened in 1887. Coos county, second congressional, first councilor and second senatorial districts.

Danville was settled by Jonathan Sanborn in 1738 and was a part of Kingston until 1760, when it was incorporated as "Hawke." Part of Fremont ("Poplin") was annexed in 1783. In 1836 the name was changed to Danville and in 1877 a small part of Hampstead was annexed. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-third senatorial districts.

Deerfield was included in the grant of Nottingham in 1722 to about two hundred men from Boston and vicinity by the governor of Massachusetts in payment for "services rendered and grievances endured." A petition to the governor by these men the previous year asked for a township to be named "New Boston," but the name actually given to it was Nottingham. In 1750 a small settlement was made in the western part of Nottingham and this settlement was set off as a separate parish. In 1756 this parish petitioned to be incorporated, and while Governor Wentworth was considering this petition, a Mr. Batchelder killed a very large, fat deer in the settlement and gave it to the governor, which so pleased His Excellency that he named the town Deerfield. It was incorporated in 1766. In 1762 four men, "with axe and gun," went into the wild unsettled part of northern Nottingham and made clearings, one going as far as the "Narrows." When this settlement had three hundred inhabitants, in 1773, it was chartered as Northwood. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-second senatorial districts.

Enfield was granted in 1761 and regranted in 1768 as "Relham." The grant was repealed in 1784. In 1781 a committee was authorized to establish the lines of the town of "Enfield, alias Relhan." The committee's report was adopted in 1802. In 1837 part of Grantham was annexed. Grafton county, second congressional, first councilor and fifth senatorial districts.

Epping was part of Exeter until its incorporation in 1741. The boundary between Epping and Lee was established in 1818. One of its residents, William Plumer, was four times elected governor between 1812 and 1818. Epping is a brick-manufacturing center. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-third senatorial districts.

Epsom was granted in 1727 to Theodore Atkinson and others. The first meeting of the grantees was held that year in the ferry house at New Castle, and the first meeting held in Epsom was in 1743. In 1841 a Pittsfield school district and Epsom school district No. 6 were united to form "Republican School District." Merrimack county, first congressional, fifth councilor and fourteenth senatorial districts.

Errol was granted in 1774 to people residing in Salem, Mass., and Danvers, Mass. There were few settlers prior to 1800 and only twenty-six inhabitants in 1820. The town was incorporated in 1836 and the population in 1880 was 161. It is well known for its fishing and hunting. Coos county, second congressional, first councilor and first senatorial districts.

Exeter was settled in 1638 by Rev. John Wheelwright, who received a grant of one hundred and thirty miles north and northwest from the Merrimack river, with the exception of Dover and Portsmouth. This territory had been previously known as "Squamscott Falls," and Reverend Wheelwright gave the name of Exeter to this and all surrounding country when he settled with some twenty or thirty other men. The town became established in 1639 and maintained a system of self-government. Land which now includes the town of Hampton was purchased that same year by Exeter people from the Indians. In 1641 Exeter went under the jurisdiction of Massachusetts and became a part of Norfolk county of Massachusetts Bay colony. Reverend Wheelwright's son, grandson and great grandson were chosen councilors. About 1656 the Massachusetts legislature cut down the territory of Exeter to about one half its original dimensions. At the same time one Thomas Wiggin gave some land on the southern end, one mile wide and three miles long, to the town. Newmarket was set off from Exeter and incorporated in 1727, Brentwood in 1742 and Epping in 1741, so that the town contained less than seventeen square miles, or one twentieth of the original grant or purchase of Wheelwright from the Indians. This is the home of Phillips Exeter academy, the oldest academy in the state. Exeter was the state capital during the Revolution and all sessions of the provincial congress or convention and colonial legislature were held here. The state legislature met here frequently until about 1800. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-third senatorial districts.

Hinsdale was a part of the grant of Winchester in 1733 by Massachusetts. The charter of the town was issued in 1753, when New Hampshire regranted it to Ebenezer Alexander and his associates, and included territory between the east boundary of Winchester and the Connecticut river. The first settlement was in 1737 by Daniel Shattuck, and other early settlers were Peter Evans, Robert Cooper, John Evans and Colonel Ebenezer Hinsdale. The colonel was the son of a Deerfield woman, who was carried captive to Canada by the Indians. He later became chaplain of Fort Dummer, and himself built Fort Hinsdale in 1742. In the same year of the incorporation the colonel and others petitioned for a division of the town, which was granted; and the western part was renamed Hinsdale after the leading petitioner. For several years Hinsdale embraced territory on both sides of the river, including Vernon. Horrible warfare with Indians was carried on by the settlers. Forts Hinsdale, Dummer and Shattuck were defensive points. A resident of this town, William Haile, was the first governor elected by the Republican party (1857). Cheshire county, second congressional, fourth councilor and eleventh senatorial districts.

Holderness was granted in 1751 to John Shepard and others and regranted in 1761 to Major John Wentworth and others. It was originally called "New Holderness" in honor of the Earle of Holderness. In 1782 the town was changed from Strafford to Grafton county. In 1816 the name was changed to Holderness. The southern part of the town was cut off in 1868 and incorporated into Ashland. Second congressional, first councilor and third senatorial districts.

Hollis was originally part of "Dunstable," which was granted by Massachusetts in 1673. It was organized in 1739 as "West Parish of Dunstable" and incorporated as Hollis in 1746. In 1763 "One Pine Hill" was annexed to it. In 1769 the western part of Hollis, together with "Mile Slip," was incorporated into the town of Brookline ("Raby"). Part of Monson was annexed in 1770. Part of "Dunstable" (Nashua) was annexed in 1773, and in 1786 and 1787 parts of Hollis were annexed to Brookline. Hillsborough county, second congressional, fourth councilor and twelfth senatorial districts.

Hooksett was incorporated in 1822 from parts of Chester, Dunbarton and Goffstown. The Chester portion had been known as "Chester Woods" or "White Pine Country." "Hooksett Pinnacle" and the village were known in colonial days as "Hanna-Ko-Kees Hills." In 1853 part of Hooksett was annexed to Allenstown. Merrimack county, first congressional, third councilor and fourteenth senatorial districts.

Hopkinton was granted in 1735 as "No. 5" in the "line of Towns." The boundaries were established in 1741 and the place was regranted in 1750 to Henry Mellen and others. In 1763 it was granted town privileges, and part of Bow was annexed. It was incorporated in 1765. It was named after Hopkinton, Mass., by John Jones, one of the grantees. It was a shire town of Hillsborough county until Merrimack county was formed in 1823. The legislature met in Hopkinton in 1798, 1801, 1806 and 1807. Merrimack county, second congressional, fifth councilor and ninth senatorial districts.

Hudson was part of "Dunstable" in the grant by the government of Massachusetts Bay Colony in 1673. It was incorporated as "Nottingham" in 1722. The grant of the old township of Dunstable by the General Court of Massachusetts, October 16, 1733, included all of Hudson. In 1746 it was incorporated as "Nottingham West," which was changed in 1830 to the name of Hudson. In 1778 part of Londonderry was annexed. The first settlement on the banks of the river in 1710 was by families named Hill, Cummings and Blodgett. Hillsborough county, first congressional, fourth councilor and twenty-second senatorial districts.

Jackson was originally made up from a number of state grants that were issued to soldiers who served in the French and Indian wars, and were known as the Wentworth, Treadwell, Gilman, Gridley and Rogers grants; and the first name of the town was "New Madbury." Benjamin Copp made the first settlement in 1778, and for twelve years he and his family lived there alone. In 1790 five other families, Joseph Pinkham, Joseph D. Pinkham, Clement Meserve, Jonathan Meserve and John Young settled there. The Meserves petitioned to have the town incorporated in 1796, 1797, 1799, and 1800, and the fourth request was granted. Upon incorporation the name of the town was changed to "Adams" in honor of John Adams, who was president. In 1806 the state granted three hundred acres of land to the town for school purposes. In 1819 part of the town was annexed to Bartlett, and in 1822 part of Bartlett was annexed to "Adams." The name was changed to Jackson on the Fourth of July in 1829 in honor of Andrew Jackson, who was then president. Part of Bartlett was annexed in 1839. Carroll county, first congressional, first councilor and fourth senatorial districts.

Jaffrey was granted in 1749 by the Masonian Proprietors to Jonathan Hubbard and others, and was known as "Monadnock No. 2," "Middle Monadnock" and "Middletown." The grant was renewed in 1767, and the town was incorporated in 1773 and named Jaffrey in honor of George Jaffrey. The first settlements were made in 1752 by Moses Stickney and others, who soon abandoned the place; but six years later permanent settlements were made by John Grout and others. Cheshire county, second congressional, fourth councilor and eleventh senatorial districts.

Jefferson was granted in 1765 to Colonel John Goffe and others, and was known as "Dartmouth." It was regranted in 1772 to Theodore Atkinson and others, and settlements were then made by Colonel Joseph Whipple and Samuel Hart of Portsmouth. The town was incorporated in 1796 and named Jefferson in honor of Thomas Jefferson, who was that year elected vice-president. Part of Kilkenny was annexed in 1842. Coos county, second congressional, first councilor and second senatorial districts.

Kensington was part of Hampton from 1638 to 1718, when Hampton Falls was set off and Kensington was set off from Hampton Falls and incorporated in 1737 and named after an English town. Rev. Jeremiah Fogg was the first minister, 1737-89. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-third senatorial districts.

Kingston was partly included in the original grant of Hampton, and was set off and granted in 1694 to James Prescott and others, and was called "King's-town" until about 1800, when the spelling was changed to its present form. The early settlers made a peace treaty with the Indians in 1713. East Kingston was set off and incorporated in 1738, Sandown in 1756 and Danville in 1760. Part of Kingston was annexed to Plaistow in 1831. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-third senatorial districts.

1855 and incorporated as Laconia. Part of Meredith was annexed to Center Harbor in 1873. Belknap county, first congressional, fifth councilor and sixth senatorial districts.

Merrimack was part of the grant of "Old Dunstable" and was originally named "Naticook" by the Indians. In 1729 the land north of the Souhegan river, a strip three miles wide, was granted to Captain Joseph Blanchard and others. In 1733 these previous grants, lying north of Pennichuck Brook and including a part of "Narragansett No. 5," (now Amherst, granted to the soldiers of King Philip's war) were incorporated into a township and named "Souhegan East." Later the name was changed to "Rumford" and then to "Merrimac." In 1746, the legislature chartered the town and it contained 19,361 acres of land. In 1750 an addition of that part of the town lying north of the Souhegan river was granted. The first settlements in town were in 1722 by the Usher, Hassell, Blanchard, Chamberlain and other families. In this town was discovered and developed the making of "leghorn bonnets" and other grass work, the Misses Burwap engaging in this industry before 1820. Edward Goldstone Lutwyche, a wealthy English gentleman, lived in this town when the Revolution broke out at what was then called "Lutwyche's Ferry," and was a colonel in the army. He joined the British in the Revolution and the state confiscated his estate and changed the name to "Thornton's Ferry," in honor of Matthew Thornton, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, who lived here. Hillsborough county, first congressional, fourth councilor and twelfth senatorial districts.

Middleton was granted in 1749 by the Masonian Proprietors to Ebenezer Barney and others and was called "Middletown." The charter was renewed in 1770 and the place incorporated as Middleton in 1778. The northern part of the town, after an unsuccessful attempt in 1785, was severed in 1794 and incorporated into Brookfield. Strafford county, first congressional, second councilor and twentieth senatorial districts.

Milan was granted in 1771 to Sir William Mayne and others and named "Paulsbourg" in honor of Paul Wentworth. It was incorporated as Milan in 1824. Coos county, second congressional, first councilor and first senatorial districts.

Milford was granted by the Massachusetts Colony to officers and soldiers who served the province in the Narragansett war, in the recognition of brave and patriotic deeds. The grants were made during the period from 1728 to 1733. Part of the present Milford was in the small town of "Monson," which was granted by Massachusetts and incorporated in 1746. In 1770 "Monson," was divided between Amherst and Hollis. In 1794 Milford was incorporated out of parts of Hollis, Amherst, "Mile Slip," "Monson," "Souhegan West" and "Duxbury School Farms." It was composed of five parcels of land. The first settlements were in 1740 by William Peabody, John Shepard, Benjamin Hopkins, John Burns, Nathan Hutchinson, Abner Hutchinson, Elisha Towne, Caleb Jones, Andrew Bradford, Captain Josiah Crosby and William Wallace. Part of Milford was annexed to Amherst in 1842 and part of Lyndeborough was annexed to Milford in 1873. Hillsborough county, second congressional, fourth councilor and twelfth senatorial districts.

Milton was originally a part of Rochester, known as "Third Parish" or "Northeast Parish," and in 1802 it was set off and incorporated. The first settlement was by Jonathan Twombly, about 1760. The second settler was Richard Walker. Milton Mills was settled about 1785. The town was called during the early settlements "Palmer's Mills" and "Three Ponds." The town furnished eight men for the Revolutionary army, fifty-four for the second war with England and one hundred fifty for the Civil War. In 1858 part to Milton was annexed to Wakefield. Strafford county, first congressional, second councilor and twentieth senatorial districts

Monroe was set off from Lyman and incorporated in 1854, and comprised that part of Lyman west of Gardner's Mountain, the natural boundary today between the two towns. In 1897 part of Bath was annexed. Grafton county, second congressional, first councilor and third senatorial districts.

Mont Vernon was set off from Amherst and incorporated in 1803. Part of Lyndeborough was annexed in 1853. Hillsborough county, second congressional, fourth councilor and twelfth senatorial districts.

Moultonborough was granted to Colonel Jonathan Moulton and others, for whom it was named, in 1763, by the Masonian Proprietors. "Mountonborough Gore" was annexed in 1765 and Moultonborough was incorporated in 1777. "Long Island" was annexed in 1799. Carroll county, first congressional, first councilor and fourth senatorial districts.

Nelson was granted in 1752 to John Hutchinson and others by the Masonian Proprietors, and was known as "Monadnock No. 6." The grant was renewed in 1767, when the first settlements were made by Breed Batchellor and Nathaniel Breed. The grant was again renewed in 1774, when the town was incorporated and the name changed to "Packersfield" in honor of Thomas Packer. In 1777 an attempt was made to change the name to "Sullivan," but it was unsuccessful, and ten years later, in 1787, the northwestern part of "Packersfield" was incorporated, with other territory, into the town of Sullivan. In 1812 the southwestern corner was combined with other territory to make up the town of Roxbury. In 1814 the name was changed to Nelson in honor of Lord Nelson, the hero of Trafalgar. The line between Nelson and Roxbury was changed in 1820, Nelson losing a small tract. Part of Stoddard was annexed in 1835. In 1870 parts of Nelson and Dublin were made into Harrisville. Cheshire county, second congressional, fourth councilor and tenth senatorial districts.

New Boston was granted in 1735 by Massachusetts Colony to John Simpson and others, who were soldiers in the Canadian expedition of 1690, or their heirs. It was named "Lane's town," and in 1751 it was regranted to Job Lewis and others. The next year an arrangement was made with the Masonian Proprietors by which they relinquished their claim to this territory and in addition gave a large tract to the west. In 1763 the town was incorporated and the name changed to New Boston, after the capital of Massachusetts, and Colonel John Goffe of Bedford called the first town meeting. The western section was called "New Boston Addition" until 1772, when it was incorporated, together with part of "Society Land," into Francestown. Several of the grantees and early settlers came from Boston, Mass. Part of New Boston, in the northeast corner, was annexed to Goffstown in 1836. In 1887 forty buildings, comprising most of the village, were destroyed by fire. In 1893 the railroad was extended as far as this town. New Boston is the home of the "Molly Stark Gun," of Revolutionary war fame. Hillsborough county, second congressional, fourth councilor and fourteenth senatorial districts.

Newbury was granted in 1753 by the Masonian Proprietors and was called "Dantzic." It was regranted in 1772 to John Fisher and others and incorporated in 1778 under the name of "Fishersfield" in honor of the grantee. The Masonian grant of "Hereford" was included within "Fishersfield." Part of the town in 1791 went with other territory to incorporate Goshen. Part was annexed to Bradford in 1796 and another part in 1859. The name of the town was changed to Newbury in 1837. It was taken from Cheshire county and annexed to Hillsborough county, and later became a part of Merrimack county. Second congressional, fifth councilor and ninth senatorial districts.

New Castle was a part of Portsmouth and commonly known as "Great Island" until 1693, when it was set off and incorporated as Newcastle. The earliest settlers were David Thompson, Shadrach Walton, Captain Walter Neal, George Jaffrey, Theodore Atkinson, Shadrach Bell, John Amazeen, Richard Tarleton, Elias Stileman, James Randall, Nathaniel Fryer, William Seavey, James White, Sampson Sheafe and Francis Tucker. In 1726 part of Newcastle, together with other territory, was incorporated into Rye, The General Assembly or legislature met in Newcastle as early as 1684, and for many years this town was the seat of provincial government, and the residence of the governor is still standing. The first important armed action of the revolutionary patriots took place in Newcastle in 1774, when the "Sons of Liberty," under the command of Major John Sullivan and Captain John Langdon, went to Fort William and Mary (now Fort Constitution) and captured Captain John Cochran and his garrison and carried away one hundred barrels of gunpowder to Durham, and this powder was afterwards used at the Battle of Bunker Hill. In 1791 that part of the town southwest of Little Harbor was annexed to Rye. In 1873 the ancient records of the town, from 1693 to 1726, were discovered in Hertfordshire in England and were returned to the town hall. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-fourth senatorial districts.

New Durham was granted in 1749 by the Masonian Proprietors to Jonathan Chesley and others and was called "Cocheco Township." It was settled by people from Durham, who changed its name to New Durham, and the town was incorporated in 1762. "New Durham Gore" was incorporated as Alton in 1796. Strafford county, first congressional, second councilor and twentieth senatorial districts.

Newfields was originally a part of Exeter and later (1727) of Newmarket. It was one of the four local divisions of Newmarket, those divisions being Newfields, Lamprey River, Piscassic and the Plains. The name of the division known as Newfields was first given in 1681. At that time Edward Hilton, Jr., and his wife, Ann (Dudley) Hilton, sold to John Folsom, Jr., sixteen acres of land, bounded in part by the field of the senior Edward Hilton, commonly called Mr. Hilton's new field. In 1849 the two divisions, Newfield and Piscassic, were incorporated as a town and named "South Newmarket." In 1852 part of the town was annexed to Newmarket and in 1883 part of Newmarket was annexed to South Newmarket. Dr. John M. Brodhead of Washington, D. C., a native of Newfields, died in "South Newmarket" in 1880, and his will contained the following provision: "Ten thousand dollars to the town of South Newmarket, N. H., for the purpose of purchasing books for a town library, to be under the control of the selectmen, under the condition that the name of the town shall be legally changed to Newfields and so remain. On the same condition and for the same purpose I bequeath to said town my private library. Neither of these bequests shall take effect until the name of the town shall have been changed." The name was changed to Newfields in 1895. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-third senatorial districts.

New Hampton was granted in 1765 to Jonathan Moulton and others, the proprietors of Moultonborough, and was named "Moultonborough Addition." The town was incorporated as New Hampton in 1777 and named after Hampton. Part of the town was set off and incorporated as Center Harbor in 1797. Belknap county, first congressional, fifth councilor and fifth senatorial districts.

Newington was a part of Dover, and settlements were made as early as 1670, and the place was commonly known as "Bloody Point." In 1713 it was set off from Dover and made a parish and the following year took the name of Newington. In 1764 it was incorporated. In 1821 part of the town was annexed to Portsmouth, Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-fourth senatorial districts.

New Ipswich was granted in 1735 by the Massachusetts Colony to John Wainwright, John Choate and other inhabitants of Ipswich, Mass. It was regranted by the Masonian Proprietors in 1750 to Reuben Kidder and others. It was incorporated in 1762 as "Ipswich" and the name changed to New Ipswich in 1766. The first settlement was in 1738 by Abijah Foster, who had a son, Ebenezer Foster, born there; and they both died of the smallpox while serving as soldiers in the French and Indian war near Crown Point in 1759. The second academy in the state was incorporated in this town in 1789 as "New Ipswich Academy," eight years after Phillips Exeter academy in Exeter. The name of "New Ipswich Academy" was later changed to Appleton academy. This town was originally laid out six miles square, but a piece of "Townsend" was annexed to its eastern side and a mile strip was cut off from its northern side, so that it is now diamond-shaped. In 1900 Governor Frank W. Rollins took part in the celebration of the town's one hundred fiftieth anniversary. Hillsborough county, second congressional, fourth councilor and twelfth senatorial districts.

New London was granted in 1753 by the Masonian Proprietors and named "Heidleburg." It was regranted in 1773 to Jonas Minot and others and the name changed to "Alexandria Addition." In 1779 it was incorporated and the name changed to New London after London, England. Part of "Kearsarge Gore" was annexed in 1793, part of Sunapee in 1804 and another part of Sunapee in 1817. The northern part of New London, together with part of "Kearsarge Gore," was set off and incorporated into Wilmot in 1807. Merrimack county, second congressional, fifth councilor and seventh senatorial districts.

Newmarket was set off from Exeter in 1727 and incorporated as a parish. It was granted town privileges in 1737. The boundary line was changed in 1805, 1807 and 1818. The southern part of the town was set off and incorporated in 1849 as "South Newmarket" (Newfields). Part of "South Newmarket" was annexed in 1852 and part of Durham in 1870. In 1883 part of Newmarket was annexed to "South Newmarket." Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-fourth senatorial districts.

Newport was granted in 1753 to Issac Pennell and others and was called "Grenville." It was regranted in 1761 to Nathaniel Fish and others and incorporated and named after Newport, R. I. Only one of sixty-three grantees was an actual settler. The desirable qualities of the valley of the Sugar river were made known to the people of Killingworth, Conn., by one Eastman, a hunter and trapper, who made expeditions up the Connecticut river. In 1765 and 1766 a family party from Killingworth settled the town, and in 1769 the charter was permanently renewed. Newport sent forty soldiers to the Revolutionary army and twenty to fight in the second war with England. Two hundred and forty men went to the Civil War, and one young resident, Andre Champollion, was killed in the European war in a trench in northern France, March 23, 1915. In 1791 part of Newport, together with parts of Sunapee, Lempster, Newbury and Unity, went into the incorporation of Goshen. Newport was the home of Dexter Richards, who established Richards High School and Richards Free Library; Mrs. Sarah J. Hale, the author of "Mary Had a Little Lamb;" Rear Admiral George E. Belknap and Austin Corbin, who established Corbin Park, the largest game preserve in the country. Newport has always been the seat of Sullivan county since its creation in 1827. Sullivan county, second congressional, fifth councilor and eighth senatorial districts.

Newton was set off from Hampton in 1749 and incorporated and named "Newtown." Captain Josiah Bartlett called the first town meeting. Part of South Hampton was annexed to Newton in 1749, and in 1772 the boundary between these towns was established. Part of East Kingston was annexed in 1845 and the name was changed to Newton in 1846. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-third senatorial districts.

Northfield was set off from Canterbury and incorporated in 1780. It had been settled about twenty years before. Part of Northfield was combined with other territory to make up Franklin in 1830, but the same territory was reannexed to Northfield in 1830 and put back again into Franklin in 1858. Additional land was annexed to Franklin in 1861. Merrimack county, first congressional, fifth councilor and seventh senatorial districts.

North Hampton was originally the northern part of Hampton and was probably settled in 1690 by two brothers, Samuel Dearborn and John Dearborn. The house built by the latter is used as a residence to this day. In it was born in 1751 a grandson of the builder, Henry Dearborn, who became senior major general of the army at the outbreak of the second war with England in 1812. The movement to separate the northern part of Hampton began in 1719, but was unsuccessful until 1738, when the parish of "North Hill" was established. Four years later this parish was incorporated as a town and the name changed to North Hampton. The boundary between North Hampton and Rye was established in 1792. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-third senatorial districts.

Northumberland was granted in 1761 to John Hogg and others and was known as "Stonington." It was regranted in 1771 to Daniel Warner and others and in 1779 was incorporated and its name changed to Northumberland after an English town. The first settlements were in 1767 by Thomas Burnside and Daniel Spaulding. Parts of Stark were annexed in 1855 and 1863. Coos county, second congressional, first councilor and second senatorial districts.

Northwood was set off from Nottingham and made a parish in 1773. It was originally called "North-woods." The first settlements were in 1763 by Increase Bachelder, John Bacheleder and Moses Godfrey of North Hampton and Solomon Bickford of Durham. The first town meeting was called by Benjamin Johnson in 1773 and held at the home of Valentine Kenneson. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-second senatorial districts.

Nottingham was granted by Massachusetts to two hundred Boston men and incorporated in 1722 and named after an English town, although its inhabitants desired to have the town named "New Boston." The first meeting was held at the home of Major John Gilman the same year. Part of the town was set off and incorporated into Deerfield in 1766 and another part into Northwood in 1773. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-second senatorial districts.

Orange was granted in 1769 to Isaac Fellows and others and named "Cardigan." In 1779 the inhabitants petitioned to have the town incorporated and named "Bradford;" in 1783, "Middleton;" and in 1789 "Liscomb." In the last petition the word "Liscomb," was crossed out and the name Orange inserted, and the town was incorporated in 1790 as Orange. Part of the town was annexed to Hebron and part of Hebron to Orange in 1804, and the line between the two towns was established in 1808. Part of Orange was annexed to Alexandria in 1820. Grafton county, second congressional, first councilor and fifth senatorial districts.

Orford was granted in 1761 to Jonathan Moulton, Jr., and others. The previous year several inhabitants of Hampton met at the residence of Lieutenant Jonathan Leavitt, an inn-holder, and petitioned Governor Benning Wentworth for a township on the eastern bank of the Connecticut river at "Sugar River." The governor gave to sixty-three proprietors a deed "unto our loving subjects" for a tract of land six miles square, beginning at the northwestern corner of Lyme and having its western boundary the river. The river townships were numbered after the early forts built as defense against the Indians, and Orford was "No. 7." The name of Orford was after an English town and is the only place in America of that name. The first settlements were made in 1765 by Daniel Cross, General Israel Morey, John Mann and others, who came from Connecticut. The charter was renewed in 1772 and in 1778 the town voted to unite with Vermont. Part of Orford was annexed to Wentworth in 1837. Grafton county, second congressional, first councilor and fifth senatorial districts.

Ossipee was named for a tribe of Indians who once lived there and was known originally as "Ossipee Gore" and "New Garden." It was incorporated as Ossipee in 1785, and in 1820 that part of "Ossipee Gore" which was not included in Ossipee was annexed to Effingham. Part of Ossipee was annexed to Tamworth in 1837 and part of this territory was reannexed to Ossipee in 1859. Carroll county, first congressional, first councilor and fourth senatorial districts.

Pelham was made up from parts of "Old Dunstable," Londonderry and Dracut, Mass., and incorporated in 1746 and named in honor of Thomas Pelham Holles, Duke of Newcastle. The first permanent settlements were in 1721 and 1722 by John Butler and families by the names of Wyman, Hamblett, Jacques and others. For many years title to the town was disputed on account of an old Masonian grant, and settlement was delayed. In 1774 the Masonian Proprietors confirmed the original charter. The town was divided in 1787 into two parishes and reunited in 1792. In 1824 it was taken from Rockingham county and annexed to Hillsborough county. In 1830 a gore of land between Pelham and Windham was annexed to Pelham. Beaver brook, running through the town, is spanned by three stone bridges, "built with the public money" received during the Jackson administration, amounting to $3,800. The town has a library, five school districts, and two churches, and electric railways. Hillsborough county, first congressional, fourth councilor and twenty-second senatorial districts.

Pembroke was granted in 1728 by the Massachusetts Colony to Captain John Lovewell and others and was known as "Suncook" and "Lovewell's-town." It was incorporated in 1759 and the name changed to Pembroke in honor of the Earl of Pembroke. Walter Bryant called the first town meeting. In 1763 the town was divided into two parishes. In 1798 a dispute between Pembroke and Allenstown was settled by extending the boundary of Pembroke to the Suncook river. In 1804 all of Bow lying east of the Merrimack river was annexed to Pembroke and Concord. Merrimack county, first congressional, fifth councilor and fourteenth senatorial districts.

Peterborough was granted in 1737 by the Massachusetts Colony to Samuel Hayward and others and was known as "Souhegan." It was incorporated in 1760 and the name changed to Peterborough in honor of the Earl of Peterborough. The charter was renewed in 1762. The first permanent settlements were made in 1749. Part of the southeastern corner of the town was annexed to Temple in 1789. Part of Peterborough was included in the territory which went into the incorporation of Greenfield in 1791. Hillsborough county, second congressional, fourth councilor and eleventh senatorial districts.

Piermont was granted in 1764 to John Temple and others and was incorporated the same year. Four years later the first settlements were made by Daniel Tyler, Levi Root, Ebenezer White and David Tyler. In 1787 part of the town was annexed to Wentworth, but in 1819 and 1822 was reunited to Piermont. Grafton county, second congressional, first councilor and third senatorial districts.

Pittsburg was formerly known as "Indian Stream Territory" until its incorporation in 1840. Its boundary line was established in 1848. It is the largest in territory and the most northern town in the state. Coos county, second congressional, first councilor and second senatorial districts.

Pittsfield was set off from Chichester and incorporated in 1782, and John Cram called the first town meeting. In 1841 a Pittsfield school district and Epsom school district No. 6 were united to form "Republican School District." In 1870 a fire district was established. Merrimack county, first congressional, fifth councilor and fourteenth senatorial districts.

Plainfield was granted in 1761 to Benjamin Hutchins and others and named for Plainfield, Connecticut. It was settled three years later. Part of the town went with part of Grantham in 1780 to form the "Parish of Meriden." The Grantham part of this parish was annexed to Plainfield in 1856. Sullivan county, second congressional, fifth councilor and eighth senatorial districts.

Plaistow was originally part of Haverhill, Mass., and was included in a purchase from the Indians in 1642. It was named after Plaistow in England. The first settlement in 1642 was by Captain Charles Bartlett, Nicholas White, Esq., Dea. Benjamin Kimball and J. Harriman. The town was incorporated in 1749. Part of it was set off in 1767 and incorporated into Atkinson. Part of Kingston was annexed in 1831. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-third senatorial districts.

Plymouth was granted in 1763 to Joseph Blanchard and others and was sometimes called "New Plymouth." The first settlements were in 1764 by Zachariah Parker, James Hobart, Stephen Webster, David Webster and others. The town was organized and the first meeting held at the home of Stephen Webster in 1766. Parts of Plymouth, with other territory, went into the incorporation of Hebron in 1792. A tract of land on the north side was severed by a boundary committee and restored in 1793, and other land owned by Nathaniel Peabody was annexed at the same time. Part of Hebron was annexed in 1845 and the southwestern part of Campton in 1860. Grafton county, second congressional, first councilor and third senatorial districts.

Randolph was granted in 1772 to John Durand and his son, Edward Perry, Thomas Brown and Charles Henzell, and was named "Durand" in honor of its principal proprietor. In 1824 the town was incorporated and the name changed to Randolph in honor of John Randolph. Coos county, second congressional, first councilor and first senatorial districts.

Raymond was purchased in 1717 from an Indian by Colonel Stephen Dudley and was called "Freetown." It was part of Chester from the incorporation of that town in 1722 until 1764, when it was set off and incorporated as a parish and named Raymond. Samuel Emerson called the first town meeting that year. In 1848 the boundary between Raymond and Candia was established. Rockingham county, first congressional, third councilor and twenty-second senatorial districts.

Richmond was granted in 1735 by the Massachusetts Colony to Captain Joseph Sylvester's men and was named "Sylvester-Canada." In 1752 it was granted to Joseph Blanchard and others in seventy-one shares and was incorporated and its name changed to Richmond. The charter was renewed in 1760. The northern part of the town was annexed to Swanzey in 1762. Another part was combined with parts of Marlborough, Fitzwilliam and Swanzey to make up the incorporation of Troy in 1815. The northwestern corner was annexed to Winchester in 1850. Cheshire county, second congressional, fourth councilor and eleventh senatorial districts.

Rindge was granted in 1736 by the Massachusetts Colony to some inhabitants of Rowley, Mass., who engaged in the Canadian expedition, and named the town "Rowley-Canada." The Masonian Proprietors granted the town in 1749 to Solomon Stewart and others, who changed the name to "Monadnock No. 1," and later to "South Monadnock." In 1754 it was settled by Abel Platts, Joseph Platts, Joel Russell, Nathaniel Russell, Ezekiel Jewett, George Hewitt and Jonathan Stanley. In 1768 the town was incorporated and the name changed to Rindge in honor of Daniel Rindge. The boundary between Rindge and Fitzwilliam was established in 1847. Cheshire county, second congressional, fourth councilor and eleventh senatorial districts.

Rollinsford was set off from Somersworth and incorporated in 1849 and named in honor of the Rollins family. The business part of the town is known as "Salmon Falls." Part of Rollinsford was annexed to Dover in 1879. Strafford county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-first senatorial districts.

Roxbury was made up from parts to Nelson, Keene and Marlborough and incorporated in 1812. In 1868 the question of annexation to Keene was submitted to popular vote and defeated. Cheshire county, second congressional, fourth councilor and tenth senatorial districts.

Rumney was granted in 1761 to Samuel Olmstead and others. The first settlements were in 1765 by Daniel Brainard, Jonathan Cummings, James Heath and Moses Smart, and in 1767 the town was regranted to Daniel Brainard and others. The Union School District of Rumney and Wentworth was established in 1842 and its boundaries defined in 1847. Grafton county, second congressional, first councilor and fifth senatorial districts.

Rye was originally known as "Sandy Beach" and was settled in 1635. It was a part of Portsmouth until 1693, when it became part of the territory incorporated into Newcastle. In 1726 it was cut off from Newcastle and with parts of Portsmouth and Hampton was incorporated into Rye. That part of Newcastle southwest of Little Harbor was annexed in 1791. "Gosport" or "Star Island" in the Isle of Shoals was annexed in 1876. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-fourth senatorial districts.

Salem was originally a part of Haverhill, Mass. In 1725 that part of Haverhill which includes the present town of Salem was set off and incorporated by the Massachusetts Colony into Methuen, Mass. In 1750 Salem was severed from Methuen, joined to New Hampshire, and incorporated as a town. The first settlers were Haverhill people, and among them were the Ayer, Peaslee, Dow, Eaton, Clement, Hall, Kelly, Woodbury, Wheeler, Webster, Merrill, Pattee, Duston, Sanders, Ober, Eastman, Kimball, Hastings, Bayley, Emerson, Taylor, Wilson, Rowell, Corning, Austin, Jones, Tenney, Messer, Wright, Thom, Betton and Clendenin families. Salisbury was granted in 1736 by the Massachusetts Colony and named "Baker's-town." It was regranted in 1749 by the Masonian Proprietors to Ebenezer Stevens and others and the name changed to "Steven's-town." The name was later changed to "Gerrishtown" and then to "New Salisbury," and in 1768 it was incorporated with the name of Salisbury. The first settlements were about 1750 by Ebenezer Webster, John Webster, Edward Eastman, Nathaniel Meloon and Philip Call. In 1828 the eastern part of the town, together with parts of Andover, Northfield and Sanbornton, was incorporated into Franklin. In 1869 part of Franklin was annexed to Salisbury. Merrimack county, second congressional, fifth councilor and ninth senatorial districts.

Sanbornton was granted in 1748 by the Masonian Proprietors to John Sanborn of Hampton and others, and called "Sanborntown," twelve of the sixty grantees being Sanborns. The northwestern corner of the land claimed by Massachusetts was within the limits of the town until 1739, and the township is referred to as "Crotch-town" in the Massachusetts records because of its situation in the fork of the Winnipesaukee and Pemigewassett rivers. The activities of the Indians prevented permanent settlement until 1764, when clearings were begun by Moses and Thomas Danforth, Solomon Copp, Daniel Fifield, Samuel Sheppard and Andrew Rowen. In 1770 Sanbornton was incorporated, having at the time "upwards of forty families." In 1827 Sanbornton ranked as the third town in the state, Londonderry and Gilmanton standing first and second. In 1828 part of the town was cut off to form Franklin, and in 1869 the part of the town known as "Sanbornton Bridge" was set off and incorporated as Tilton. In 1870 part of Tilton was annexed to Sanbornton and in 1870-1872 parts of Sanbornton were annexed to Tilton. Belknap county, first congressional, fifth councilor and sixth senatorial districts.

Sandown was set off from Kingston and incorporated in 1756. Colonel Ebenezer Stevens called the first town meeting. In 1775 the population was 635, of whom thirty-four men were in the Revolutionary army. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-third senatorial districts.

Sandwich was granted in 1763 to Samuel Gilman, Jr., and others and incorporated. The following year "Sandwich Addition" was granted. In 1785 the boundaries between Sandwich, Tamworth and Moultonborough were adjusted, and in 1808 the boundaries between Sandwich, Tamworth, Eaton and Albany. Part of Waterville was annexed in 1864. Carroll county, first congressional, first councilor and fourth senatorial districts.

Seabrook was originally part of Hampton and later of Hampton Falls. It was set off and incorporated in 1768. Part of Hampton Falls was annexed in 1816, "so long as the said Stephen Gove shall continue to dwell thereon; but not afterwards," and part of South Hampton in 1822, when the western boundary was fixed. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-third senatorial districts.

Sharon was made up from a part of "Peterborough Slip" and incorporated in 1791, after an unsuccessful attempt to incorporate had been made in 1777. The question of annexation to Peterborough was submitted in 1867 to popular vote, but was never adopted. Hillsborough county, second congressional, fourth councilor and eleventh senatorial districts.

Shelburne was granted in 1668, and regranted in 1769 by King George III to Mark H. Wentworth, Daniel Peirce, Daniel Rogers and John, Daniel, Isaac and Jothan Rindge. In 1770 the same proprietors received a grant of "Shelburne Addition," now the town of Gorham. Theodore Atkinson, secretary of the province, surveyed the grant in 1771. The first settlers were Hope Austin, Benjamin Ingalls and Daniel Ingalls, who came in 1770. Two years later came Thomas Green Wheeler, Nathaniel Porter and Peter Poor, who was later killed by the Indians. Mr. Austin and his wife and three children tramped in five feet of snow for twelve miles to make a settlement. In 1820 the town was incorporated, with a population of 205. The Androscoggin river joined by the Rattle river passes through the town. Mt. Moriah, 4,771 feet high, is the highest elevation, and in 1879 a signal station was established. In 1836 "Shelburne Addition" was set off and incorporated into Gorham. Coos county, second congressional, first councilor and first senatorial districts.

South Hampton was made up from parts of Amesbury and Salisbury, two towns in Massachusetts, and incorporated in 1742. The eastern part of the town was annexed to Hampton Falls that same year. Another part of the town was annexed to Newton in 1749 and the line between South Hampton and Newton was established in 1772. Part of South Hampton was annexed to Seabrook in 1822.

Part of East Kingston was annexed in 1824. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-third senatorial districts.

Stark was granted in 1774 to Jacob Waldron and others and called "Percy" in honor of the king's chaplain, Thomas Percy. It was incorporated in 1795 with the name "Piercy." Part of Stratford and all of "General John Winslow's Grant" was annexed in 1832 and the name changed to Stark in honor of General John Stark. Part of the town was annexed to Lancaster in 1840, parts to Northumberland in 1855 and 1863, and part to Dummer in 1868. Coos county, second congressional, first councilor and second senatorial districts.

Stewartstown was granted in 1770 to Sir James Cockburne, Sir George Colebrooke and John Stuart of London and John Nelson of the Island of Grenada, and was named "Stuart" or "Stuarttown" in honor of one of the grantees. It was incorporated in 1795 and again in 1799 as "Stuart." There were no permanent settlements until after the Revolutionary War. During the second war with England, in 1812, a fort was built in town. Coos county, second congressional, first councilor and second senatorial districts.

Stoddard was granted in 1752 by the Masonian Proprietors to Colonel Sampson Stoddard and others and was named "Monadnock No. 7," which was later changed to "Limerick." The charter was renewed in 1767. The town was incorporated in 1774 and the name changed to Stoddard in honor of the original grantee. The first settlements were in 1769 by John Taggart and others. The southwestern part of the town, together with parts of Gilsum, Keene and Nelson, went to make up the incorporation of Sullivan in 1787. The lines between Stoddard and Gilsum and Marlow were established in 1797, and all of Marlow east of the "curve line" was annexed. Part of the town was annexed to Nelson in 1835. Cheshire county, second congressional, fourth councilor and tenth senatorial districts.

In 1773 the town was granted to Joshua Wentworth and others and the name changed to Stratford after an English town. In 1779 it was reincorporated. The first settlers were Isaac Johnson, Archippus Blodgett and others. The southeastern part of the town was annexed to Stark in 1832. Coos county, second congressional, first councilor and second senatorial districts.

Stratham was granted in 1629 to Edward Hilton and was called "Winnicott," being a part of "the Squamscott Patent." In 1716 the town was incorporated and the name changed to Stratham after Lady Stratham of England, who gave the bell for the first church for the privilege of naming the town. Part of Stratham was annexed to Greenland in 1805 and another part in 1847. The line between Stratham and Newmarket was changed in 1805 and again in 1807. In 1916 the town held a bicentennial celebration of its charter. Rockingham county, first congressional, second councilor and twenty-fourth senatorial districts.

Sullivan was made up and incorporated in 1787 out of the corners of Stoddard, "Packersfield" (now Nelson), Keene and Gilsum, and was named in honor of General John Sullivan of the Revolutionary army. The first settlements were in 1768 by Steven Griswold and Benjamin Olcott. William Comstock settled in 1770. A small part of Keene was annexed in 1794 and in 1874 a few rods of land in Sullivan were annexed to Gilsum. Cheshire county, second congressional, fourth councilor and tenth senatorial districts.

Sunapee was originally called "Corey's-town" in honor of Oliver Corey, to whom it was granted in 1768. The name was later changed to "Saville." In 1781 the town was incorporated and the next year the name changed to "Wendell" in honor of John Wendell of Portsmouth, one of the grantees. The southern part of the town, together with parts of Newport, Newbury, Lempster and Unity, was incorporated as Goshen in 1791. Parts of "Wendell" were annexed to New London in 1804 and 1817. The town changed its name to Sunapee in 1850. It is a popular summer resort. Sullivan county, second congressional, fifth councilor and eighth senatorial districts.

Surry was incorporated and granted in 1769 out of 12,212 acres of the towns of Westermoreland and Gilsum, the Westmoreland part being previously known as "Westmoreland Leg." It was named after an English town. Obadiah Wilcox was the first member of the legislature in 1776 and he also represented Alstead and Marlow. Early settlers in the town were Peter Haywood, who called the first town meeting; Captain Thomas Harvey, Moses Field, Lemual Holmes and Abner Skinner. At one time Surry voted to be a part of Vermont. Cheshire county, second congressional, fourth councilor and tenth senatorial districts.

Sutton was granted in 1749 by the Masonian Proprietors to Obadiah Perry and fifty-nine others and named "Perry's-town." The charter was renewed in 1752 and 1773. The town was incorporated in 1784 and the name changed to Sutton after a Massachusetts town. David Peaslee and his son, Samuel, who settled there in 1767, found traces of an Indian village on the west side of Kezar's pond. Merrimack county, second congressional, fifth councilor and ninth senatorial districts.

Swanzey was granted in 1733 by the Massachusetts Colony to Nathaniel Hammond and others and named "Lower Ashuelot." Settlements were made, but in 1747 they were abandoned on account of the withdrawal of guards on the frontier. Settlers returned in 1750, and in 1753 they had the town incorporated, and changed its name to Swanzey after a Massachusetts town. Part of Richmond was annexed in 1762. Part of Swanzey was annexed to Marlborough in 1794, another part in 1842 and part to Keene in 1812. Part of the town was taken by the incorporation of Troy in 1815. Cheshire county, second congressional, fourth councilor and eleventh senatorial districts.

Tamworth was granted in 1766 to Lieutenant John Webster and others and was named after an English town. The first settlements were made in 1771 by William Eastman, Richard Jackman, David Philbrick and Jonathan Choate. The boundaries between Tamworth and Sandwich were adjusted in 1785, between Tamworth and Albany and Eaton in 1796, and between Tamworth and Sandwich, Albany and Eaton in 1808. Troy was incorporated in 1815 from parts of Marlborough, Fitzwilliam, Swanzey and Richmond and named in honor of the ancient city. The first person to settle on territory now within the town was William Barker, a native of Westborough, Mass., who came in 1761 and settled in the west part. Some three or four years later Silas Fife came from Bolton, Mass., and settled in the east part. As the inhabitants increased, quite a settlement was made on the border between Fitzwilliam and Marlborough, which was easier of access than the center of these towns and more convenient for transacting business, so that about 1781 the question of forming a new town was agitated. The agitation kept recurring, and each time was vigorously opposed by the towns interested until 1815, when they allowed the act of incorporation to go through. The town comprises an area of a little more than twelve miles. The boundary between Troy and Marlborough was established in 1847, and in 1870 part of Troy was annexed to Marlborough. Cheshire county, second congressional, fourth councilor and eleventh senatorial districts.

Tuftonboro was granted in 1750 by the Masonian Proprietors to John Tufton Mason and named "Tuftonborough" in his honor. Later the name was changed. Woodbury Langdon once purchased a large part of the town. No settlements were made until during the Revolutionary War in 1780 to 1785. An inventory in 1788 contained the names of thirteen settlers, including Phineas Graves, Benjamin Bean, Edward Moody, Obadiah Brown, William C. Warren, Hanson Libbey, Jonathan Brown, James Whitehouse, William Melling, Elisha Abbott, Benjamin Young and Grafton Nutter. In 1790 there were one hundred nine residents, and in 1795 the town was incorporated. The first meeting was held the following year in the home of William Copp. A road from Wolfeboro to Tuftonboro was laid out in 1796. Cow Island was annexed in 1799. Four more islands were annexed in 1858. A small tract of land was set off to Wolfeboro in 1858. Another island was annexed in 1863. In 1800 a Congregational church was organized, and later merged with the Methodist church. The town house was built in 1819; the first Christian church established in 1820; the Free Baptist in 1837, and the second Christian in 1864. The town furnished one hundred twenty-eight soldiers for the Civil War. Carroll county, first congressional, first councilor and fourth senatorial districts.

Part of the town went to make up the incorporation of Goshen in 1791, part was annexed to Charlestown in 1810, part was annexed to Goshen in 1837, and the northwestern corner was annexed to Claremont in 1828. Sullivan county, second congressional, fifth councilor and eighth senatorial districts.

Wakefield was granted in 1749 by the Masonian Proprietors to John Ham and others and was named "Ham's-town." This was later changed to "East-town" and later to "Watertown." In 1774 the town was incorporated and the name again changed to Wakefield. In 1820 that part of the town north of "Province Pond" was annexed to Effingham. Part of Milton was annexed in 1858. Carroll county, first congressional, second councilor and fourth senatorial districts.

Walpole was granted in 1736 by the Massachusetts Colony to John Flint and others and was known as "No. 3" in the line of towns on the eastern bank of the Connecticut river. The first settlement was in 1749 by John Kilburn and his family. It was regranted by New Hampshire in 1752 to Benjamin Bellows and others and incorporated with the name Walpole, after an English town. It was sometimes known as "Great Falls" or "Bellows-town." The charter was renewed in 1761. In 1773 Mr. Bellows was given ferry privileges across the Connecticut. In 1783 the right to build a toll bridge at Bellows Falls was granted Colonel Enoch Hale. Part of Walpole, together with part of Charlestown, was incorporated into Langdon in 1787. Cheshire county, second congressional, fourth councilor and tenth senatorial districts.

Warner was granted in 1735 by the Massachusetts Colony to Thomas Stevens and others and was known as "No. 1" in the line of towns between the Merrimack and Connecticut rivers. Early settlers came from Amesbury, Mass., and named this place "New Amesbury." In 1749 the Masonian Proprietors regranted the town to Richard Jenness and other inhabitants of Rye, who changed the name to "Jennesstown" and later to "Ryetown." In 1767 it was regranted to Jonathan Barnard and others. In 1774 it was incorporated and the name changed to Warner in honor of Colonel Jonathan Warner of Portsmouth. "Kearsarge Gore" was annexed in 1818. Merrimack county, second congressional, fifth councilor and ninth senatorial districts.

Warren was granted in 1763 to John Page and others and named in honor of Admiral Sir Peter Warren of the British Navy. It was incorporated that same year and the charter was renewed, with additional territory, in 1770. The first settlement was in 1767 by Joseph Patch. The boundaries were established in 1784. Grafton county, second congressional, first councilor and fifth senatorial districts.

Washington was granted in 1735 by the Massachusetts Colony and called "No. 8" in the line of towns between the Merrimack and Connecticut rivers. The Masonian Proprietors granted it in 1752 to Captain Peter Prescott and others, and regranted it in 1768 to Reuben Kidder and others. The charter was renewed in 1772. The name was changed from "Monadnock No. 8" to "New Concord," then to "Camden," and finally, in 1776, to Washington, and it was incorporated in honor of George Washington. This was the first town in the country to take the name of the first president. The first settlers in Washington came in 1768 from New Ipswich and other places, some of them from Massachusetts. Among the early settlers whose descendants still live in the town, or did until recently, were Jacob Burbank, Ebenezer Spaulding, David Lowell, Ephraim Severence, John Safford, Samuel Copeland, Jonathan Brockway and Simeon Farnsworth. The town was in Cheshire county until 1827, when it went into the new county of Sullivan. Part of the town, together with "New Bradford" and "Washington Gore," made up the incorporation of Bradford in 1787. The boundary between Washington and Lempster was established in 1812. Sullivan county, second congressional, fifth councilor and eighth senatorial districts.

Waterville was granted as part of the Gillis and Foss Grant to John Raymond. The first settlement was in 1819 by Moses Foss. In 1829 the town was incorporated as Waterville. Part of it was annexed to Sandwich in 1864. Grafton county, second congressional, first councilor and fourth senatorial districts.

Weare was granted in 1735 by the Massachusetts Colony to Robert Hale on behalf of the soldiers of Captain John Raymond. It was named "Beverly-Canada," later changed to "Halestown." In 1749 the Masonian Proprietors granted the town to Ichabod Robie and others and changed the name to "Robie's-town," later to "Weare's-town." In 1764 it was incorporated as Weare in honor of Meshech Weare, first governor (president) of the state. The boundary between Weare and Dunbarton was established in 1853. Hillsborough county, second congressional, fourth councilor and fourteenth senatorial districts.

Webster was set off from Boscawen and incorporated in 1860. It was named in honor of Daniel Webster. Merrimack county, second congressional, fifth councilor and ninth senatorial districts.

Wentworth was granted in 1766 to John Page and others and incorporated and named in honor of Governor Benning Wentworth. It was regranted in 1772 to Asa Porter and others. Part of Piermont was annexed in 1787 and reunited to Piermont in 1819 and 1822, and part of Orford annexed in 1837. The Union School district of Rumney and Wentworth was established in 1842 and its boundaries defined in 1847. Grafton county, second congressional, and fifth senatorial districts.

Wentworth's Location became a town in 1881, being the youngest town in the state. Coos county, second congressional, first councilor and first senatorial districts.

Westmoreland was granted in 1735 by the Massachusetts Colony and was known as "No. 2" in the line of towns east of the Connecticut river. It was later called "Great Meadows." In 1752 New Hampshire granted it to Thomas Chamberlain and others, who incorporated it as Westmoreland. The charter was renewed in 1760. The first settlements were in 1741 by Daniel How, Jethro Wheeler, Philip Alexander and Thomas Orissen, who came in canoes from Northfield. For many years the Indians were active in that vicinity. Part of the town, known as "Westmoreland Leg," went into the incorporation of Surry in 1769. Cheshire county, second congressional, fourth councilor and tenth senatorial districts.

Whitefield was granted in 1774 to Josiah Moody and others, who named it "Whitefields." In 1801 the first settlements were made by Colonel Joseph Kimball, Major John Burns and John McMaster. In 1804 it was incorporated and the name changed to Whitefield. The first town meeting was held the following year at the home of Major Burns. In 1824 the postoffice was established and William Dodge was the first postmaster. Coos county, second congressional, first councilor and second senatorial districts.

Wilmot was incorporated in 1807 from parts of New London and "Kearsarge Gore." Part of Hill was annexed in 1832. Parts of Wilmot were annexed to Danbury in 1848 and 1878. Merrimack county, second congressional, fifth councilor and seventh senatorial districts.

Wilton was granted in 1749 by the Masonian Proprietors to Thomas Read and others and was known as "No. 2," The first settlements were in 1739 by James Putnam, Ephraim Putnam and John Badger, the last named being a son of an English nobleman. In 1744 a petition signed by several residents, including John Cram, John Dale, Joseph Cram, Jonathan Cram, Ephraim Putnam, Samuel Putnam, Benjamin Cram and John Stephens, was presented to Governor Wentworth, praying for protection against the Indians. The town was surveyed originally as five miles square, divided into ten ranges of twenty lots of land each. Each lot was 160 by 80 rods. In 1762 the town was incorporated and the name changed to Wilton after an English town. In 1768 the tenth range of the town was taken to help make the incorporation of Temple. Ancestors of Reverend Lyman Abbott of New York City, a famous editor and preacher, lived in Wilton as early as 1765, one member of the family inventing a machine for making starch in 1811 and conducting a business in Wilton. The Masonian Proprietors at an unknown date annexed part of Lyndeborough to Wilton. In 1869 a freshet carried away every bridge in town, with mill and dams, and did a damage of $150,000. Hillsborough county, second congressional, fourth councilor and twelfth senatorial districts.

Winchester was granted in 1733 by the Massachusetts Colony to Josiah Willard and others, and was first called "Earlington." Later, for some cause yet undiscovered, the name was changed to "Arlington," which later was changed to "Winchester," after an English city, from which some of the ancestors of the grantees are said to have come. As originally granted, the township was of the contents of six miles square, and it was shaped like the block letter L, and "lay to the eastward and northward of Northfield." Its southeastern corner was established practically as it now is, while its northwestern corner was at the Connecticut river, where Brattleboro, Vt., now is, and at the present corner of Hinsdale and Chesterfield at this point. In 1744 "the New Province line" was established between Massachusetts and New Hampshire, This line severed from Winchester about two thousand acres, which later became a part of Warwick, Mass., and divided the township of Northfield nearly in the middle, leaving a portion in each province. In 1753 New Hampshire granted to Josiah Willard and his associates all that territory lying between Winchester's east line and the Connecticut river, under the name of Winchester, with the proviso that the township so incorporated might be divided. This provision was promptly (in the same year) acted upon; and upon the petition of Col. Ebenezer Hinsdale and others the township of Hinsdale was set off. The southwesterly corner of Winchester was fixed at a point in the New Province line eighty rods eastwardly from the Connecticut river, and thence Winchester's westerly line ran due north, "by the needle," till it intersected the original east and west line on the north boundary. By this, Winchester received a large portion of the old Northfield grant on its southwest corner and lost a considerable area on its northwesterly border. This allotment of territory continued unchanged for ninety-seven years. In 1850 a small triangular corner was taken from the northwest corner of Richmond and annexed to Winchester. Cheshire county, second congressional, fourth councilor and eleventh senatorial districts.

Windham was set off from Londonderry and incorporated in 1741 and named after an English town. The first grant of land in what is now Windham was one of five hundred acres made by the legislature of Massachusetts to Rev. Thomas Cobbett of Ipswich, Mass., in 1662. The exact location is not known, but it was on the shore of what is now Cobbett's Pond. The first settlement was made about 1720. John Waddell occupied the first house. David Gregg and Alexander McCoy settled the following year. The line between Windham and Salem was established in 1752, part of Windham being annexed to Salem. Part of Londonderry was annexed in 1777 and another part the following year. The line between Londonderry and Windham was established in 1782 and an additional part of Londonderry was annexed in 1805. Rockingham county, first congressional, third councilor and twenty-second senatorial districts.

Windsor was formerly known as "Campbell's Gore," and in 1797 "Wheeler's Gore" was annexed to it. The next year the town was incorporated and the name changed to Windsor after an English town. It is one of the smallest towns, both in area and population. Hillsborough county, second congressional, fourth councilor and ninth senatorial districts.

Wolfeboro was granted in 1759 by the Masonian Proprietors to William E. Treadwell and others. This grant was taken from a large tract of land called "Kingswood" and named "Wolfborough" in honor of General Wolfe, the hero of Quebec. Nearly a century afterwards, by special act of congress, the spelling was changed to Wolfeboro. Four additions have since been made to the town on the sides now bounded by towns of Alton, Wakefield and Tuftonboro. Wolfeboro was incorporated in 1770. Not until 1768 were there any permanent inhabitants. Among the early settlers were Benjamin Blake, William Fullerton, Ruben Libby, Ebenezer Meader, Thomas Piper and Henry Rust. In 1858 a small part of Tuftonboro was annexed. Wolfeboro was the summer home of John Wentworth, the last provincial governor, and he did much for this new settlement. The foundations of his commodious manison still remain and are visited by tourists. Brewster Free academy, a preparatory school of recognized standing, is located in Wolfeboro. Carroll county, first congressional, first councilor and fourth senatorial districts.

Woodstock was granted in 1763 to Eli Demerit and others and incorporated with the name "Peeling." It was regranted in 1771 to Nathaniel Cushman and others and the name changed to "Fairfield." In 1840 the name was changed to Woodstock. Grafton county, second congressional, first councilor and third senatorial districts.

UNINCORPORATED PLACES

Thompson and Meserve's Purchase was sold by Commissioner Willey to Samuel W. Thompson of Conway and George P. Meserve of Jackson in 1835 for $500 and contained about 12,000 acres.

Hale's Location was granted by King George the Third to Samuel Hale of Portsmouth in 1771 and contained about 1,215 acres.

STATE HOUSE PORTRAITS

The galleries of oil paintings in the State House constitute the best collection of portraits of famous New Hampshire men to be found anywhere. These portraits are the property of the state, some given by descendants or admirers of the subjects, a few purchased by legislative appropriations.

The list of portraits is as follows:

First Floor, Doric Hall

COLONEL ENOCH POOR, a portrait copied by U. D. Tenney from the original by Thaddeus Kosciusko and presented by Colonel Poor's grandson, Colonel Bradbury P. Cilley. The original painting is in an oval locket about two by one and one-half inches in dimensions. Kosciusko sketched it one Sunday in church on a blank leaf of a New Testament, and afterwards the artist, a personal friend of the colonel, colored it and presented it to Colonel Poor. The latter's daughter wore the locket as a breast pin, and upon her death it came into the possessions of her son, Colonel Cilley, who had the copy painted. Colonel Poor was born in Andover, Mass., June 21, 1736, later coming to Exeter to live. He held a commission in the French War and was in command of the Third New Hampshire Regiment in the Revolution. This regiment was sent to Canada and Colonel Poor was made brigadier-general in 1777, later being sent to the army in the middle states. He died of fever in camp at Hackensack, N. J., September 9, 1780.

GENERAL JOHN STARK, copied by U. D. Tenney, 1873, from an original by Trumbull. General Stark was born in Londonderry, August 28, 1728. He served as lieutenant in the French and Indian Wars and became colonel of a New Hampshire regiment at the outbreak of the Revolution. He was in command at the battle of Bennington and was afterwards made brigadier-general. In 1778 he was in command of the Northern army. He spent fourteen years as a soldier but was never wounded. His services in the Revolutionary War were of great value to the country. After the close of the war he returned to New Hampshire and devoted himself to agricultural and lumbering interests. He died in Manchester May 8, 1822.

GENERAL JOSEPH CILLEY, portrait copied by U. D. Tenney from an original by Trumbull, presented in 1872 by Colonel Joseph Cilley. General Cilley was born in Nottingham in 1735. In 1758 he enlisted as a private and served on the northern frontiers, later holding a commission under the royal government as captain. At the outbreak of the Revolution he was appointed lieutenant-colonel and made colonel in 1777. After the war he was appointed major-general of the militia and served as representative, senator and councilor. He died in 1799.

GENERAL WILLIAM WHIPPLE, portrait by U. D. Tenney from the original by Trumbull and purchased by the state. General Whipple was born in Kittery, Maine, January 14, 1730, and became a sailor. He was elected to the continental congress in 1776 and signed the Declaration of Independence. He was brigadier-general in the War of the Revolution and assisted in negotiating the terms of General Burgoyne's surrender at Saratoga in 1777. After the war he became judge of the superior court and died in Portsmouth November 28, 1785.

GENERAL JOHN ADAMS DIX, an original portrait by U. D. Tenney, painted in 1887, presented by friends of General Dix through Henry P. Rolfe. General Dix was born in Boscawen, July 24, 1798. His military career began as captain, U. S. A., which position he resigned in 1828. He became adjutant-general of New York in 1830 and secretary of state of New York in 1833; United States senator from New York from 1845 to 1849, and secretary of the treasury in 1861. During the Civil War he was major-general of volunteers. After the close of the war he was naval officer of the port of New York, 1866; minister to France, 1866, and governor of New York, 1872. He was the first president of the U. P. Railroad. He wrote several sketches and made some translations. He died in New York City, April 21, 1879.

COLONEL JESSE A. GOVE, original by A. Tenney, presented in 1874 by the widow of Colonel Gove. He was born in Weare in 1825, later residing in Concord. He was 2nd lieutenant in 1847, captain of the 10th Infantry in 1855, and colonel of the Massachusetts 22nd Infantry in 1861. He was killed at Gaines Mills, June 27, 1862.

GENERAL CHARLES AUGUSTUS DOYEN, portrait by E. Wyatt Kimball, purchased by the state in 1919. General Doyen was born in Concord, September 3, 1859. He graduated from Annapolis in 1881, was midshipman for two years, then promoted through the ranks to colonel in 1898. He saw service in Cuba during the Spanish-American War and in the Philippine Islands, and was in command of United States Marines at Washington at the outbreak of the war with Germany. Promoted to brigadier-general, March 22, 1917, he went to France in command of the 5th regiment, United States Marines, and was in active service in the Verdun sector but was invalided home in May 1918, and later assigned to command at the Marine training camp in Virginia. He died in 1919.

COMMODORE GEORGE HAMILTON PERKINS, portrait by Daniel Strain, presented by his daughter, Mrs. Larz Anderson. Commodore Perkins was born in Hopkinton, October 20, 1835. He was appointed to Annapolis and became acting midshipman in 1851, and won promotion until he became captain in 1882. By special act of Congress he was made a commodore in 1896, the last to be appointed before the rank was abolished. His service in the navy during the Civil War was distinguished and heroic. He was executive officer of the "Cayuga" at the passage of Forts Jackson and St. Philip, and at the capture of New Orleans in 1862; and commanded the "Chicksaw" in the battle of Mobile Bay, being mainly instrumental in the capture of the "Tennessee." He died in Boston, Mass., October 28, 1899.

CAPTAIN JAMES S. THORNTON, original by U. D. Tenney. Captain Thornton was born in Merrimack in 1827. He graduated from Annapolis in 1841, was appointed captain in 1872, and commanded, among other vessels, the famous "Kearsarge." He died at Germantown, Pa., 1875.

COLONEL JOSEPH CILLEY, portrait presented by his descendants in 1876. Colonel Cilley was a soldier and statesman, born in Nottingham in 1791. He served in the War of 1812 and was brevetted captain. In 1846-1847 he served as United States senator, elected as the Democratic candidate. He died in the town where he was born and always lived, in 1887.

GENERAL JAMES MILLER, copied by U. D. Tenney from original by Henry Willard, presented by the family of General Miller. He was born in Peterborough, April 25, 1776, and became colonel and brevet brigadier-general, serving in the War of 1812. He was governor of Arkansas from 1819-1825, and collector of the port of Salem, Mass., 1825-1849. He died in Temple, July 7, 1851.

GENERAL BENJAMIN FRANKLIN BUTLER, an original by Darius Cobb, 1889, presented in 1889 by the Butler Club of Massachusetts. General Butler was born in Deerfield, November 5, 1818. He was a lawyer and became a major-general the first year of the Civil War. After the war he became a member of congress from Massachusetts, 1866-1875 and 1877-1879, and governor of Massachusetts in 1882. Two years later he was a candidate for president of the United States. He died in Lowell, Mass., January 11, 1893.

On the day when the above portrait, considered to be Cobb's masterpiece, was to be presented to the state, great preparations were made by the legislature, then in session. General Butler, who was to make the presentation, missed his train. He at once hired an engine and arrived in Concord with the portrait only a few minutes late for the celebration.

COLONEL EDWARD EPHRAIM CROSS, original by U. D. Tenny, 1882, presented in 1883 by Richard E. Cross, a brother. Colonel Cross was born in Lancaster, April 22, 1832. He took the first steam engine and printing press across the Rocky Mountains in 1858. He was a lieutenant-colonel in the Mexican army in 1860, and became colonel of the 5th New Hampshire Volunteers at the outbreak of the Civil War. He died at Gettysburg, Pa., July 2, 1863.

REAR ADMIRAL GEORGE E. BELKNAP, portrait by F. H. Tompkins, 1896. Admiral Belknap was born in Newport in 1832: he was midshipman when only fifteen years of age; commissioned lieutenant, September 16, 1855; lieutenant-commander, 1862; commander, 1866; commodore, 1885; and rear admiral 1889.

GENERAL JOHN McNEIL, portrait presented by his daughters, Mrs. H. W. Benham and Mrs. F. McNeil Potter in 1874. He was born in Hillsborough, March 25, 1784. He served in the War of 1812 and was colonel and brevet brigadier-general. In 1829 he was surveyor of port of Boston, and died in Washington, D. C., February 23, 1850.

LIEUTENANT JONATHAN EASTMAN, Jr., an original by U. D. Tenney, presented in 1887 by John E. Frye and other descendents. Lieutenant Eastman was paymaster in the War of 1812.

MAJOR EDWARD E. STURTEVANT, original by Ansel Clough. Major Sturtevant was born in Keene, August 7, 1826. He is supposed to have been the first man to enlist from New Hampshire. He was commissioned captain in the 1st Regiment, then captain of the 5th. He was in every march, skirmish and battle of his regiment until his death upon the field of Fredericksburg, when he fell upholding the flag.

COLONEL PHIN P. BIXBY, an original by U. D. Tenney, presented in 1877 by friends of Colonel Bixby. When the war broke out in 1861 Colonel Bixby was engaged in practice in Concord. He volunteered for service and was commissioned adjutant of the 6th Regiment, New Hampshire Volunteers. He was wounded at the second battle of Bull Run and was taken prisoner to Libby Prison but later exchanged. In 1862 he received his commission as major, was wounded again at Petersburg, after which he was promoted to lieutenant-colonel in 1864 and colonel in 1865.

GENERAL AARON FLETCHER STEVENS was born in Derry, August 9, 1819. He moved to Nashua in 1838, was admitted to the bar in 1845, and was in the legislature in 1856-1857. At the beginning of the war he was commissioned major of the First New Hampshire Regiment, then served as colonel in the 13th New Hampshire Regiment from 1862 to the end of the war. He was severely wounded at the assault on Fort Harrison in 1864, and appointed brigadier-general, by brevet, December 8, 1864. After the war he served as member of Congress for two terms, 1867-1871.

HARRIET P. DAME, portrait by Caroline L. Ranson, 1902. Miss Dame, one of the most noted war nurses in the Civil War, was born in Barnstead, July 5, 1815. She volunteered at the outbreak of the war, was taken prisoner at the Second battle of Bull Run, but was given a pass through the lines. In 1863 she had charge of the New Hampshire soldiers' Relief Rooms in Washington. She was at the battle of Gettysburg, and in 1864 was appointed matron of the Eighteenth Hospital corps. From 1867 to 1895 she was employed as clerk in the treasury department in Washington. She died in Concord, April 24, 1900.

MAJOR EVARTS W. FARR, an original by U. D. Tenney, 1881, presented by Major Farr's widow. Major Farr was born in Littleton in 1840. He was educated at Thetford (Vt.) Academy and Dartmouth. In April 1861 he left college, one of the first to answer Lincoln's call. He was commissioned 1st lieutenant, Co. G., 2nd New Hampshire Volunteers, and promoted to captain in 1862. He lost his right arm at Williamsburg. He became captain and then major of the 11th regiment. After the war he was assessor of internal revenue, solicitor for Grafton County, member of the governor's council, and member of Congress 1879-1880, and died in office.

GENERAL JOHN L. THOMPSON, portrait by U. D. Tenney, 1898. General Thompson was born in Plymouth in 1835. He was colonel of the 1st New Hampshire Cavalry and brevet brigadier-general U. S. V. for distinguished and meritorious services. He died in Chicago in 1888.

JOHN HORACE KENT was born in Barnstead. During the Civil War he was sergeant of the 43rd Massachusetts Infantry, and afterwards was deputy United States provost marshal in Portsmouth. From 1887 to 1888 he was warden of the New Hampshire state prison, and died in Concord in 1888.

MAJOR GENERAL JOHN G. FOSTER, an original portrait by Alfred E. Smith, purchased by the state August 8, 1927. General Foster was born in Whitefield, N. H., May 27, 1823. He graduated from the United States Military Academy in 1846. He entered the engineering corps, served in the Mexican War; in the Civil War at Fort Sumpter and Roanoke Island; was commissioned brigadier-general in 1861; made major general and, in turn, commander of the departments of North Carolina, Ohio and Florida. In 1865 he was brevetted major general in the regular army, and later placed in charge of engineering projects in the east. He was ranking officer from New Hampshire in the Civil War. He died in Nashua, September 2, 1874.

CYRUS A. SULLOWAY, portrait by Frank French, 1913, presented by New Hampshire State Veterans Association. Mr. Sulloway was born in Grafton, June 8, 1839. He took a partial course at Kimball Union Academy, was admitted to the bar in 1863 and went to practice in Manchester. He became a member of the United States house of representatives in 1895, which position he held, by successive re-elections, with the exception of two years, 1913-1915, until the date of his death, March 11, 1917. During the Civil War he enlisted three times but was rejected each time for physical disability. In Congress he defended the cause of the veterans of the war and was instrumental in securing relief for them.

GENERAL GEORGE REID, an original portrait by E. Wyatt Kimball. General Reid was born in Londonderry, N. H., 1733. He was made captain of a company of minutemen in 1775 and fought at Bunker Hill, Bemis Heights and Yorktown. He was made brigadier-general of New Hampshire militia in 1785, and sheriff of Rockingham County in 1791. He died in September, 1815.

GENERAL JAMES REID, portrait copied by Anna DeWitt Reid from an original by Trumbull, presented in 1883 by Mrs. Caroline G. Reid. General Reid was from Fitzwilliam, and at the opening of the Revolutionary War he raised volunteers and marched to Medford where he was commissioned colonel in the Massachusetts line. Later he went to Exeter and took a commission from New Hampshire and was in the battle of the 17th of June at Breed's Hill. Hardships of camp life brought on blindness and he retired from the army in 1776 and died at Fitzwilliam.

REVEREND ISRAEL EVANS, portrait copied by U. D. Tenney from original by an unknown, presented in 1883 by the family of George Porter. Some authorities state that Mr. Evans was born in Pennsylvania and others assert that he was a native of New Jersey. He graduated from Princeton in 1772 and was ordained in 1776. He served throughout the Revolution as chaplain, first being assigned to General Poor's brigade of New Hampshire troops, afterwards with Colonel Scammell, General Stark and General George Washington. He preached to the soldiers at Valley Forge and addressed them at the surrender of Cornwallis. After the war he became minister of the First Congregational church in Concord and died in that city in 1807, both he and his wife being buried in the Old Cemetery.

GENERAL HENRY DEARBORN, a portrait copied by U. D. Tenney from the original by Gilbert Stuart, purchased by the state. General Dearborn was a soldier and statesman, born in North Hampton in 1751. He was deputy quartermaster-general on Washington's staff in the Revolutionary war. He became major-general of militia in Maine in 1795, United States marshal for Maine in 1789 and served two terms in congress from that state, 1793-1797. In 1801 he entered the cabinet as secretary of war and served in that capacity until 1809 when he became collector of the port of Boston for three years. The war of 1812 broke out and he resigned to become a major-general in the army during the hostilities. In 1822 he was minister to Portugal. He died in Boston in 1829.

JOSIAH BARTLETT, Jr., portrait presented by Josiah Bartlett in 1873. Mr. Bartlett was a physician in Stratham. He served as state senator from 1809-1811 and as Congressman from 1811-1813. He was killed in May, 1853 when the bridge over which he was crossing gave way.

JAMES SHEAFE, original portrait by Henry Inman, presented in 1882 by John Fisher Sheafe, a son. Senator Sheafe was born in Portsmouth, November 16, 1775, was a member of congress, 1799-1801, and United States senator 1801-1802. He died in Portsmouth, December 5, 1829.

COLONEL ALEXANDER SCAMMELL, portrait by U. D Tenney from the original by Trumbull, purchased by the state. Colonel Scammell was born in Mendon (now Milford) Mass. He graduated from Harvard in 1769 and two years later moved to Portsmouth to enter the employment of the government. He studied law in the office of John Sullivan and volunteered at the outbreak of the Revolution, being appointed colonel of the Third New Hampshire Regiment. He was adjutant-general in 1780, was wounded at the siege of Yorktown after being taken prisoner, and died from wounds at Williamsburg, Va., on October 6, 1781.

JAMES BELL, portrait presented in 1889, by the heirs of Mr. Bell. He was born in Francestown, November 13, 1804, son of Governor Samuel Bell. He graduated from Bowdoin College in 1822, and was admitted to the bar in 1825. He practiced first in Gilmanton, later moving to Exeter and becoming associated with Hon. Amos Tuck. He was in the house of representatives in 1846, and United States senator 1855-1857. He died in Gilford, May 26, 1857.

JAMES W. PATTERSON, crayon portrait presented by Mrs. Patterson. Senator Patterson was born in Henniker, July 2, 1823. He graduated from Dartmouth in 1848, and later taught mathematics there from 1852-1865. He was a member of the house of representatives in 1862; member of congress, 1863-1867 and United States senator 1867-1873. From 1881-1893 he was state superintendent of education and received the degree of LL.D. from Iowa College in 1868. His literary work included numerous speeches, addresses, lectures and orations. He died at Hanover, May 4, 1893.

EDWARD H. ROLLINS, an original by Daniel Strain. Senator Rollins was born in Rollinsford, October 3, 1824. He started in business as a druggist clerk and later went into the drug business for himself in Concord. He was always actively interested in politics and was made chairman of the first state central committee of the Republican party. He was a member of the house of representative in 1855, speaker in 1856, and in 1861 was elected to congress, which position he held for three terms. From 1877 to 1883 he was United States senator. He was particularly faithful to his duties as congressman and was rarely absent from any of the sessions. He died July 31, 1889.

JACOB H. GALLINGER, portrait by C. H. Gebhard, presented by Senator Gallinger's sister. He was born in Cornwall, Ontario, Canada, March 28, 1837. He learned and worked at the printer's trade and then studied medicine. He first practiced in Keene but later moved to Concord. He soon entered politics, however, and had a long and successful political career. He was a member of the house of representatives, 1872, 1873 and 1891; of the state senate, 1878, 1879, 1880, being president the last two years; surgeon-general of staff of Governor Head with rank of brigadier-general, 1879-1880; member of congress, 1885-1889; and was elected United States senator for six years from March 4, 1891, and four times re-elected, which office he held at the time of his death, August 17, 1918. He was the oldest member of the senate in point of service and leader of the Republican party in that body, being long regarded as the foremost champion of the protective tariff policy.

BENNING WENTWORTH, portrait copied by U. D. Tenney, 1873, from an original by J. Blackburn, 1760, presented in 1874 by Mark H. Wentworth. Benning Wentworth, the eldest of fourteen children of Lieutenant-Governor John Wentworth, was born in Portsmouth, July 24, 1696. He was governor of the province under two commissions from Kings George II and George III. His administration was the longest in the history of the province and extended from December 15, 1741, to August 11, 1766. During his administration there were French and Indian wars, and while the people of the province performed their part loyally there was much jealousy and lack of harmony between the governor, as the representative of the crown, and the Assembly, as representative of the people. After the establishment of peace in 1762 the condition of the province was more prosperous and many new townships were settled. But a few years later relations with the mother country became strained. It was alleged that the governor was lax in reporting matters to the home government and he was in disfavor in England. Before he could be removed, however, he took advantage of the opportunity to resign and his nephew, John Wentworth, was appointed his successor. Benning Wentworth died in Portsmouth, October 14, 1770.

JOSEPH DUDLEY, portrait copied by A. Tenney from original by unknown, in the possession of the Massachusetts Historical Society. It was purchased by the state. HARRY TRUE LORD, original by Frank French, 1911, presented by Mr. Lord. He was born in Manchester, May 7, 1863; graduated from Dartmouth college, 1887, and admitted to the New Hampshire bar in 1894, after which he practiced law in Manchester. He was a member of the constitutional convention in 1902; the house of representatives in 1905, 1907, 1921 and 1923; president of the senate in 1909, and councilor in 1911-1912.

WILLIAM DUMOND SWART, original by Frank French, 1912, presented by Mr. Swart. Mr. Swart was born in New Kingston, N. Y., July 9, 1856. In 1890 he located in Nashua and engaged in manufacturing business. He represented his ward in the house of representatives in 1909, and was president of the senate in 1911, and councilor in 1917.

ENOS K. SAWYER, portrait presented by Mr. Sawyer. Mr. Sawyer was born in Franklin, August 24, 1879. He was educated in the public schools of Franklin, Phillips Andover Academy, and at Dartmouth College. He engaged in the meat and grocery business in Franklin; was elected mayor of that city in 1909 and reelected the following year. He was president of the senate in 1913, and secretary of state in 1922 and 1923. In 1918 President Wilson appointed him Federal Director of the United States Employment Service for New Hampshire and Vermont. He died March 2, 1933.

GEORGE I. HASELTON, original by Frank French, 1917, presented by Mr. Haselton. He was born in Manchester, July 19, 1878, and educated at George Washington University. He returned to Manchester to practice law, represented his home city in the legislature of 1911-1913 and was president of the senate in 1915. He was elected solicitor of Hillsborough County for 1921 and 1922.

JESSE MARION BARTON, portrait presented by Mr, Barton. He was born in Newport, January 21, 1870, graduated from Dartmouth in 1892, taught school for several years, then entered Boston University and was admitted to the bar in 1899. Member of house of representatives in 1901-1902, judge of probate for Sullivan County, 1906-1917, president of the senate, 1917-1918 and chairman of Republican State Committee 1912-1914. Resides at Newport.

ARTHUR P. MORRILL, original by Frank French, 1922, presented by Mr. Morrill. He was born in Concord, March 15, 1876. Educated at Phillips Andover Academy, Yale University and Harvard Law School. He was a member of the New Hampshire Bar and a partner in the law firm of Morrill and Danforth. Delegate to Constitutional Convention, 1912; house of representatives, 1915 and 1917, being speaker pro tem in the former session and speaker in the latter. He was president of the senate in 1919-1921.

The foregoing list of portraits includes only those portraits in the corridors, council chamber, senate chamber and house of representatives. There are, however, many other portraits of noted citizens of New Hampshire in the various offices in the State House, these portraits being hung in the departments where they held office.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, 1789—1945

Under the constitutional apportionment which provided for a house of representatives in congress, New Hampshire was allotted three seats. The national census of 1790 (first census) increased this to four, the second census of 1800 to five and the third census of 1810 to six seats. The census of 1830 reduced it to five, that of 1840 to four and that of 1850 to three. The census of 1870 reduced it to two, but the seat taken away was restored until the next census of 1880, since when the state has had two representatives.

Revolutionary Councilors, 1776—84

Article 60 of the second part of the constitution provides for an executive council of five men to advise and act with the governor. Before the constitution there was a council both under the temporary constitution of the Revolution and under the provincial government. Since 1913 councilors have been elected by plurality vote to represent population but previously to that they were elected by majority vote to represent property, and in the colonial days they were appointed.

The following is a complete list of all the councilors since the Revolution giving the name and address of each and the year in which he was elected or appointed.

THE SENATE

The senate began under the constitution and first met in 1784. There were at first twelve senators who represented the five counties that then existed, five senators from Rockingham county, two from Strafford, two from Hillsborough, two from Cheshire, and one from Grafton. In 1793 senatorial districts were created to take the place of county representation and each district elected one senator. The elections during the early years took place in March and the legislature met in June annually.

The senatorial districting of 1793 was changed over in 1803 and several times subsequently. In 1878 the senate was doubled in size. In 1915 the senators were elected by plurality instead of majority vote. The following is a complete list of the senators from the beginning, showing the name and residence of each member of each senate, arranged in the order of districts from 1793, when the districts were created, and previous to that year, in the order of counties.

FEDERAL CENSUS OF 1940

Population of the State. New Hampshire was one of the original thirteen States. The rural areas grew faster than the urban areas in the ten-year period between 1930-40, according to final figures of the Sixteenth Decennial Census, issued by the Federal Census Bureau. This period has thus reversed a trend towards greater concentration of population in urban areas, which lasted from 1820 to 1930.

The final count of the Sixteenth Census showed that on April 1, 1940, New Hampshire had a population of 491,524, an increase of 26,231 over the 465,293 residents reported in the 1930 census. This change represents an increase of 5.6 per cent as compared with 5.0 per cent between 1920 and 1930.

The population increase in urban areas from 1930 to 1940 was 3.7 per cent, as compared with 8.4 in the rural sections. Urban residents accounted for 57.6 per cent of the State's population in 1940, as compared with 58.7 per cent in 1930. In 1940, residents of urban areas numbered 283,225, while the rural population amounted to 208,299. The census bureau considers as urban areas the incorporated places of 2,500 or more. In New Hampshire, however, it is not the practice to incorporate the towns (townships) until they attain a much larger population; hence in this State the thickly settled towns are also classified as urban on the basis of special requirements. The remaining territory is classified as rural.

There were nine cities of 10,000 or more in New Hampshire in 1940 and two cities of less than 10,000. There were also seven towns classified as urban under the special rule. Fifteen of the eighteen urban places gained population between 1930 and 1940. Rochester, with an increase of 17.7 per cent, was the fastest growing city of those having 10,000 or more population.

All of the ten counties shared in the State's increase between 1930 and 1940. Strafford County, with an increase of 12.9 per cent, had the most rapid growth.

The first census of New Hampshire was taken in 1790, returning a population of 141,885. The population has increased with every census since that time except that of 1870, which showed a slight loss as compared with 1860. The population passed 200,000 between 1800 and 1810; 300,000 between 1840 and 1850; and 400,000 between 1890 and 1900. From a long-range point of view, population growth in the State has tended to become less rapid, although there has been a slight acceleration since 1920. The present population represents a density of 54.5 per square mile. New Hampshire's total land area is 9,024 square miles.

Minor civil divisions.—Table 4 shows the population of each county by towns, cities, and other minor civil divisions. The more thickly settled counties are divided into towns and cities, but in Carroll County there are 2 "locations" and in Coos County there are 8 "grants," 6 "purchases," 6 "townships," and 3 "locations." Of the civil divisions known as "grants" and "purchases," 7 have had no population returned at any of the last three censuses and so are omitted from the list of minor civil divisions in Table 4.

* Coos.—The absence of population in any year indicates that none was returned at that census. Seven civil divisions of this county for which no population has been returned at any of the three censuses are not included in the table; these divisions are as follows: Bean's grant, Chandler's purchase, Crawford's purchase, Cutt's grant, Hadley's purchase, Low and Burbank's grant, and Sargent's purchase. Figures for Pittsburg town in 1920 include population reported for Colebrook Academy grant (15), Hubbard township (358), and Webster township (51.)

STATE EMBLEMS

Sections 1 and 4 of Chapter 8 of the Public Laws of New Hampshire were amended by Chapter 133 of the Laws of 1931, so that said Chapter 8 now reads as follows: (R. L., c. 13)

STATE EMBLEMS

1. Flag. The state flag shall be of the following color and design: The body or field shall be blue and shall bear upon its center in suitable proportion and colors a representation of the state seal; the seal shall be surrounded by a wreath of laurel leaves with nine stars interspersed. When used for military purposes the flag shall conform to the regulations of the United States.

2. When Displayed. It shall be displayed above the state house whenever the legislature is in session and during meetings of the governor and council when expedient, and upon such other occasions as the governor may designate.

3. Flower. The purple lilac, Syringa vulgaris, is the state flower of New Hampshire.

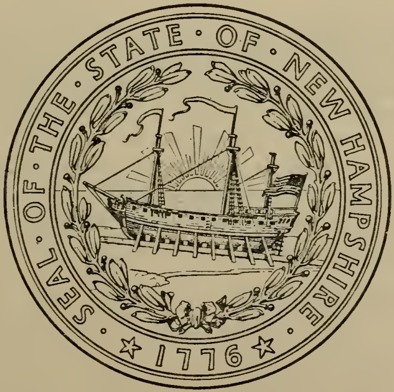
4. Seal. The seal of the state shall be two inches in diameter, circular, with the following detail and no other: A field crossed by a straight horizon line of the sea, above the center of the field; concentric with the field the rising sun, exposed above the horizon about one third of its diameter, the field encompassed with laurel; across the field for the full width within the laurel a broadside view of the frigate Raleigh, on the stocks; the ship's bow dexter and higher than the stern; the three lower masts shown in place, together with the fore, main and mizzen tops, shrouds and mainstays; an ensign staff at the stern flies the United States flag authorized by act of Congress June 14, 1777; a jury staff on the mainmast and another on the foremast each flies a pennant; flags and pennants are streaming to the dexter side; the hull is shown without a rudder; below the ship the field is divided into land and water by a double diagonal line whose highest point is sinister; no detail is shown anywhere on the water, nor any on the land between the water and the stocks except a granite boulder on the dexter side; encircling the field is the inscription, SEAL . OF . THE . STATE . OF . NEW HAMPSHIRE, the words separated by round periods, except between the parts of New Hampshire; at the lowest point of the inscription is the date 1776, flanked on either side by a five-pointed star, which group separates the beginning and end of the inscription; the whole form and design to be as follows:



OFFENSES AGAINST THE NATIONAL AND STATE FLAGS

(Chapter 443, Revised Laws)

1. Marking Flags, etc. No person shall in any manner, for exhibition or display, place, or cause to be placed any inscription, design, device, symbol, name, advertisement, words, character, marks, or notice whatever upon the national flag, or upon any flag, standard, color, or ensign of the United States, or upon the flag of this state, or upon any state flag or ensign of any other state, or upon any flag or ensign evidently purporting to be either of said flags, standards, colors or ensigns.

2. Affixing to Flags, etc. No person shall in any manner append, annex or affix, or cause the same to be done, to any such flag, standard color or ensign any inscription, design, device, symbol, name, advertisement, words, marks, or notice whatever, or exhibit or display, or cause to be exhibited or displayed, any such flag, standard color, or ensign, or any flag or ensign evidently purporting to be either of the same, upon which shall in any manner be placed, attached, annexed, or affixed any inscription, design, device, symbol, name, advertisement, words, marks, or notice whatever.

3. Using as Advertisement. No person shall expose, or cause to be exposed, to public view, manufacture, sell, expose for sale, give away, or have in possession for sale or to give away, or for use for any purpose, any article or substance, being an article of merchandise or a receptacle of merchandise or article or thing for carrying or transporting merchandise, upon which shall have been printed, painted, attached, or otherwise placed a representation of any such flag, standard, color or ensign, to advertise, call attention to, decorate, mark, or distinguish the article or substance.

4. Mutilation, etc. No person shall publicly mutilate, trample upon, defile, deface, or cast contempt upon, either by words or acts, any of said flags, standards, colors, or ensigns, whether the same are public or private property.

5. Penalty. Whoever violates any of the foregoing provisions shall be fined not more than fifty dollars, or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both.

6. Exceptions. Flags, standards, colors or ensigns, the property of, or used in the service of, the United States or of this state, may have inscriptions, names, actions, words, marks, or symbols placed thereon, pursuant to law or authorized regulations.

7. Regulations. It shall not be lawful to display the flag of any foreign country upon any state, county, or municipal buildings; provided, that whenever any foreigners shall become the guests of the United States, the state or any city, upon public proclamation by the governor or the mayor of such city, the flag of the country of which such public guest shall be a citizen may be displayed upon such public buildings.

8. Penalty. If any person shall violate any of the provisions of the preceding section he shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY

PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY, 1944

A Presidential Primary was held March 14, 1944, for the choice of delegates to the national conventions which were held by the Republican party at Chicago, Illinois, the week of June 26th, and by the Democratic party at Chicago, Illinois, the week of July 19th.

The Republicans elected seven delegates at large and each had full votes in the convention. The Democrats elected twelve delegates at large, each being entitled to one-half vote in the convention. Each party sent the customary two delegates from each of the two congressional districts.

The following summary shows the names of the candidates for delegates at large, their alternates, district delegates and their alternates, with the number of votes for each and the person, if any, to whom each was pledged. The persons elected are designated by asterisks, and the names of the persons to whom the candidates were pledged are enclosed in parentheses.

DIRECT PRIMARY
1944

DIRECT PRIMARY, 1944

Persons voted for at a primary, who received a plurality of all the votes cast by a party, shall be candidates of that party for the office designated in the ballot.—R. L. 33:50.

The direct primary election was held July 11, 1944, with candidates of the Republican and Democratic parties participating.

In the summary immediately following are the full names and residences of the candidates, also their total votes. Then follow tables carrying the vote in detail and giving only the last names of the candidates.

The first tables give by counties the votes for governor and United States senator. The next tables give by districts the votes for representatives in Congress, the votes for councilors, and the votes for state senators. Then follow the tables showing the votes for county officers.

RECOUNTS AFTER THE PRIMARY

After the primary seventeen recounts of ballots were conducted by the secretary of state, four of these being Republican contests, and thirteen Democratic contests. Six of these recounts resulted in changes in the nominees, as shown by the following tabulation. In two cases nominees were involved in ties, which were drawn in accordance with the statutes. These were in Manchester, ward nine and Colebrook. Other changes were in the nominee for Hillsborough County Sheriff; representatives in Manchester, ward eight, Berlin, ward four; and inspector of checklist in Nashua, ward eight.

PARTY ORGANIZATIONS

REPUBLICAN ORGANIZATION, 1944

The Republican state convention met at Concord, July 28th, 1944 and adopted the following platform:

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

In the stress and tragedy of total war we, Republicans of New Hampshire, have assembled in State Convention on this twenty-eighth day of July, 1944, to discharge duties devolving upon us as citizens under our free constitutional government. We recognize the solemnity of the hour and the high responsibility which rests upon the Republican Party. We take this opportunity to render our homage and to express our lasting gratitude to the New Hampshire men and women engaged in the world struggle for freedom. To the families of those who have fallen in the service of the nation we express our deep sympathy.

The War and World Peace

We pledge our united support to the prosecution of this war to a decisive victory over all our enemies. We favor responsible participation by the United States in a cooperative organization among sovereign nations to prevent military aggression and to attain permanent peace founded upon justice.

National Affairs

We here dedicate ourselves to uphold the Federal Constitution and the Bill of Rights upon which our civil liberties and economic freedom depend. In the coming election the old New Deal in a new guise, but with policies unchanged, seeks four more years of power. We condemn government by executive directive, the invasion of civil liberties, the packing of courts, the dictation to Congress, the gross extravagance, the unlawful assumption of authority which have characterized the New Deal. In contrast with the Democratic National Convention which was responsive to the will of one man, the Republican National Convention was untrammeled and free. We take deep pride in the Republican candidates for President and Vice-President and endorse without reservation the Republican National Platform. Under these great Americans, Thomas E. Dewey and John W. Bricker as President and Vice-President, the war will be vigorously prosecuted, our free institutions and American way of life maintained, and the nation safely guided in the post-war world.

The Republican Record in New Hampshire

The Republican party in New Hampshire stands upon its record. Efficiency and economy and sound fiscal policies have been distinctive features of successive Republican administrations. We take just pride in these Republican administrations, including the two administrations of Governor Blood, and in their impressive record of notable achievements. We commend our Republican members of Congress for their distinguished and patriotic service. In our candidates, Charles M. Dale for Governor, Charles W. Tobey for the United States Senate, and Chester W. Merrow and Sherman Adams for the House of Representatives, we present experienced legislators and executives who in these offices will maintain the high standards established by the Republican party.

Agriculture

The basic importance of agriculture has again been emphasized by the World War. We commend our farmers, their wives and families, for the increased production of foods in spite of labor shortages and impractical price and production regulations. We recognize the duty of the state to aid in the development of agriculture by providing adequate funds for the efficient administration of the Department of Agriculture, by the control and eradication of poultry and livestock diseased, by the stimulation of markets for our farm products both within and without the state, and by a fair allotment of public funds for the improvement of farm to market highways. We favor the expansion of the extension service of the State University and the adequate support of the College of Agriculture to provide vocational training and education for farmers. We pledge continued support of our farmers in their efforts to provide through cooperation essential services and supplies and improved facilities for marketing their product.

Business and Industry

Our industries have made impressive contributions to the war effort. We pledge our assistance in the re-adjustment of business and industry to peace time pursuits. Small business is the base of our industrial economy. We shall encourage the establishment and growth of small industries and the diversification of industry through the State Planning and Development Commission and other public and private agencies. We favor the elimination of unnecessary and arbitrary restraints upon business and industry.

For the protection of the public and for the security of millions of policyholders, we favor regulation of the insurance business by the state rather than the Federal government.

The development of an adequate air transportation service is essential to the future prosperity of the state, and we favor a progressive policy for the development of needed airport facilities and the establishment of regular air routes to all sections of the state.

Labor

We acknowledge with deep gratitude the magnificent productive effort of labor during the war. The Republican Party from its inception has supported the cause of free labor. We condemn the conversion of Federal Agencies, ostensibly established to settle industrial disputes, into instrumentalities to shackle labor and deprive it of the power to bargain collectively. We reaffirm the right of labor to bargain collectively without coercion through representatives of its own choosing. We pledge ourselves to preserve the rights of labor under existing laws, to secure fair and adequate administration thereof, and to enact such legislation as may be necessary to effectuate the liberal policies upon which our labor laws are based.

Recreation and Natural Resources

Our recreational industry is one of the most important sources of income to our citizens. We favor the conservation of our scenic resources by state planning and developing and the intensified promotion of our recreational industry through discriminating advertising.

The varied opportunities for fishing and hunting afforded by our extensive woods, lakes, ponds and streams should be maintained and developed by a co-ordinated program of fish stocking and wild life conservation supported by the state. To the extent that the funds received from license fees for hunting and fishing may be inadequate for such program they should be supplemented by special appropriations.

We recognize growing wood and timber to be a great potential, natural resource and favor such legislation as is necessary to promote its fullest development.

Equal Rights

The Republican Party has unfailingly insisted upon equality of opportunity regardless of sex, race, color or creed. We, therefore, favor equal opportunities in the post-war world to men and women alike without discrimination in rate of pay.

The Veterans

The policy of the Republican Party was established by our greatest war President, Abraham Lincoln, who, in his second inaugural address, declared the public obligation "to care for him who shall have borne the battle and for his widow and his orphan." We approve the recently enacted serviceman's (G. I.) Bill of Rights sponsored and supported by our members of Congress and also the measures for the assistance of veterans enacted by our own legislature, but the costs of these ought to be met from general funds rather than from a special poll tax. We deem it a primary duty to assure employment and economic security to the men and women who have served in the defense of the nation.

Post-War Period

No program can now be developed with assurance that it will meet the requirements of the post-war period. In the critical period after the war we shall with the cooperation of public and private agencies advocate such measures as are best designed to promote the common prosperity and general welfare. We recognize that our reconstruction to insure real happiness cannot be based alone on the improvement of standards of living, but must also be based upon the character of our people, their religious faith, education, industry and morality.

We solemnly pledge ourselves to devote our best efforts to the development of the principles and the performance of the promises contained in this platform.

DEMOCRATIC ORGANIZATION, 1944

The Democratic State Convention met at Concord, August 1, 1944, with Hon. Josaphat T. Benoit as presiding officer. The following platform was adopted:

DEMOCRATIC STATE PLATFORM, 1944

We, the delegates to the Democratic State convention assembled in Concord on August 1, 1944, adopt the following statement of our beliefs and recommendations and pledges which we purpose to fulfill:

Providentially Franklin Delano Roosevelt was given to us as our President in 1933 to guide our country safely out of the mire of economic chaos into which it had been tossed during the administration of President Hoover. The same allwise Destiny continued him as our foresighted national leader, with the fortuitous result that he is today commander-in-chief of the best trained, the best equipped army in the world, the most powerful navy in the world, the greatest air force in the world, the largest merchant marine in the world. These weapons mean but one thing—victory for the Allied powers over the Axis nations. We extend at this time greetings and gratitude to our beloved President, with assurance of our undiminished allegiance, respect and admiration, and pray that God will spare him to conclude his noble work vital to the establishment of world peace, and a guarantee of well-being within the borders of our country.

We pledge our support to the Atlantic Charter and the Four Freedoms, and approve a union with the other United Nations forming an effective international organization to preserve peace.

G. I. Bill of Rights

New Hampshire's sons and daughters are numerously represented in the armed forces and of their record in the far flung fields of battle we are justly proud. Many have made the supreme sacrifice for their country, and to their gold-star families we send our sincere sympathy. Upon the return of our boys and girls from war service, it will be the state's first duty to assure employment and economic security to every one of them. Undoubtedly, many will wish to acquire homes under the provisions of the 100 per cent loan arrangement proposed in the G. I. Bill of Rights passed by Congress and signed by President Roosevelt. The G. I. Bill of Rights is the greatest document in behalf of veterans ever conceived in world history, and we favor immediate action upon the assembling of the legislature to make the necessary changes in state laws to enable our banking institutions to comply with the 100 per cent loan feature.

We favor giving our ex-soldiers as careful preparation for peaceful pursuits as they received in the art of warfare. They should have vocational training, and an opportunity to follow the calling for which they express a preference. We favor establishment of convenient service centers, at which they may obtain free of charge, full information relative to benefits to which they may be entitled, assistance in making out necessary papers, or help in securing jobs.

Labor Legislation

We point with pride to the record of our party in labor legislation and pledge our continued support to the cause of labor, whose wonderful contribution to the war effort and thereby to victory commands our unstinted approbation. The ideals of labor have always been those of our party, for we are the party of the common man, the working man, the children of toil who earn their bread at the sweat of their brow. We pledge our best efforts to provide jobs and a living wage for returning veterans, and for civilians displaced by reconversion of war industries.

Agriculture

We favor extension of rural electrification and development of broader domestic and foreign markets for the products of our farms.

In advertising our state's assets, we must not forget agriculture. Our high quality cattle, our apples and blueberries of unsurpassed flavor, and the outstanding breed of poultry bearing the name of our state must be called to the attention of a greater number of potential buyers. Livestock is our basic agricultural industry and merits the effective cooperation of the state in its development, and for the future welfare and prosperity of our people as a whole. We pledge our party to a continuation of a fair allotment of regular and post-war highway moneys to be used in the improvement of farm to market roads.

Full reciprocal privileges in the operation of motor trucks make for a freer flow of trade which is essential to the prosperity of our state and therefore should be continued by its inclusion in permanent legislation.

Pay for Teachers

Inasmuch as the state requires towns to furnish high school education to those desiring it, the state must assume the responsibility for providing equalization money for such towns as are unable to raise the necessary funds without undue burden of taxation.

Cities, towns and villages alike are suffering by the loss of experienced teachers in their schools. We call for adequate pay in order that competent teachers may be employed, and are in favor of adequate funds to aid towns and cities where the maintenance of standard elementary, and high school courses cause an undue burden of taxation on real estate.

We deplore the partisanship which has caused paid OPA officials in New Hampshire to be chosen almost entirely from the Republican party.

Likewise, we have observed many inequities under a so called merit system for state employees, and the legislature should correct these grossly unfair ratings.

We also favor a sound retirement plan for state employees.

Against Poll Tax

Since revenue from liquor and the race track may be enlarged at will by legislative action to offset possible loss of moneys from other sources, we recommend still another forward step—namely, the complete abolition of the poll tax. We are against the five dollar poll, we are against the three dollar poll tax, we are against the two dollar poll tax. The reports as to the state's income from liquor and racing make it apparent there is no need of any poll tax upon either men or women at this time.

We recognize that recreation has become one of the principal industries of our state and that we have been blessed by nature with unlimited natural resources. We are aware of the large amount of money expended in our state in the enjoyment of these natural advantages, and we favor a progressive program of conservation supported by legislative appropriations sufficient to guarantee a living and adequate wage for state employees engaged in this work, to provide for intelligent and practical stocking of our streams, and a comprehensive program of game propagation.

Inasmuch as from 75 to 80 per cent of New Hampshire consists of woodlands we believe there should be better management and long range conservation methods to restore our depleted forests.

Small Business

We believe small business should enjoy the same opportunities for research as are open to giant corporations, and we advise the manning of the industrial laboratory at the University of New Hampshire with this object in view, thus carrying out the plans of the late President Engelhardt, which were interrupted by his untimely death this year.

We favor legislation assuring equal pay for equal work regardless of sex.

We deplore restrictions on the activities of our state industrial agent as disclosed in a recent editorial in the Keene Evening Sentinel, a Republican newspaper, and particularly the failure of this state to advertise in appropriate outside media, the many advantages it will have to offer industries after the war. The election of Hon. Josaphat Benoit, able president of this convention, today, as mayor of Manchester last fall after he courageously raised the issue of obtaining new industries that would insure a better standard of living for Manchester workers and their families, emphasized the correct and positive convictions of the residents of our largest city on this timely subject.

In many other communities there are manufacturing sites, including usable vacant buildings, which might be filled advantageously, if the state industrial agent did not find himself hampered and obstructed at every turn when he attempts to seek new industries.

Mica mines which were opened in this state as a war emergency should be assisted to become a permanent peacetime industry.

Action on Pollution

Pollution of Great Bay and the Merrimack, Connecticut and Ammoonoosuc rivers has reached serious proportions. We take the position that this situation should no longer be ignored by state authorities, that our neighbor states should be consulted forthwith to bring about concerted action, and that plans be in readiness to take advantage of available funds to end the pollution menace in the postwar reconstruction period.

We favor adoption of recommendations of the Civil Aeronautics Board for improvement of New Hampshire airports, and the addition of a number of suitable landing fields throughout the state to keep New Hampshire abreast of developments in aviation.

Some of our New Hampshire troops have been overseas more than two years. When peace is declared these veterans should be among the first to return home. We promise them and their families to do everything possible to bring them home without delay, when that return is permitted.

The Democratic party provided social security, including old age pensions. We believe that due to increased costs of living payments to the old people should be reviewed and increased where circumstances require it.

In the State primary July 11, Lieut. Col. James J. Powers, U. S. Medical Corps, was nominated for governor; Hon. Joseph Betley for United States Senator; Hon. Fortunat E. Normandin and Hon. Harry Carlson for United States Representatives, all honest, able men, all men of purpose and action, and we pledge to them our unwavering support.
